WARREN'S NAME MAY AGAIN GO TO SENATE!

F. MUHLEMAN COUNCILMAN CANDIDATE

Pioneer Resident, Formerly In City Positions, Enters Municipal Contest

Frank H. Muhleman of 227 North Louise street this morning secured from A. J. Van Wie, city clerk, a nomination petition for the office of city councilman. This makes twenty candidates who have secured petitions for the office.

Mr. Muhleman has been a resident of Glendale since 1906 and was active in early municipal affairs, serving as city attorney in 1910 and 1911 and as a member of trustees, from 1916 to 1920. The last year of this term in office he was chairman of the board and president of the city.

Mr. Muhleman has lived with his wife and three children at the present address for the past year. Prior to that they resided at 211 Maple street, where they built in 1907.

"I plan to file my petition as a candidate for election to the office of city councilman," Mr. Muhleman said when interviewed this morning by a representative of The Glendale Evening News. "As a resident of Glendale for nearly twenty years I am naturally very interested in the welfare of the city. If elected I will work to the best of my ability to serve Glendale first, last and all the time."

Following is a list of the twenty candidates for the office of

FRISCO 'BOMBED' BY ARMY PLANES

Impartial Observers Report Aircraft Wins In Test Over Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Army officers were today discussing the test made last night of the air defense of San Francisco, when a lone army plane technically dropped "bombs" on the roof of the city, successfully eluding four huge searchlights of 5000 yards range which were sweeping the sky, and a battery of anti-aircraft 75s.

The test was held under the direction of Major J. S. Pratt, with Fort Winfield Scott on the Golden Gate as the defending base and a regular army plane from Crissy field as the "enemy."

French Loan Urged By Noted Economic Expert

Two Bandits Are Caught By Jeweler

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Fighting a terrific hand-to-hand battle with two armed men, S. J. Hahn, owner of a jewelry store in West Third street, frustrated the robbery of his store today and held the men prisoner until the arrival of the police.

Pastor Gives Ten Rules for Married Life

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Answering the question, "How to Stay Married," Rev. Harley H. Gill addressed an audience of young men and emphasized ten essential points as follows:

1. Expect it to be permanent.
2. Be absolutely frank.
3. Make it a regular business partnership.
4. Own your home.
5. Rear a family.
6. Have faith in each other at all times.
7. Maintain the same moral standard you expect from your life partner.
8. Be as courteous to your wife as you are to other women.
9. Show the little attentions that express love.
10. Do not neglect the religious element in your lives.

FIVE YOUTHS DEAD IN GRADE WRECK

Two Others Seriously Hurt When Car Is Hit By Michigan Train

DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11.—Five young men were dead today and two others were suffering injuries following a grade crossing crash between their automobile and a Michigan Central passenger train.

The dead: Russell Powers, 19; Frank H. Powers, 21; Marvin Taylor, 17; Ross Wilson, 17; Marshall Charles, 21.

The injured: Basil Carpenter, 25, near death with lacerations of the throat and internal injuries; Roy Winchell, 30, lacerations and bruises.

CHARGES DENIED BY HELEN STOKES

Seeks To Clear Her Name Besmirched By Husband In Chicago Suit

CHICAGO, March 11.—A series of unqualified denials to all the charges of her millionaire husband were entered on the criminal court record here today by Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, testifying against her husband on trial for conspiracy to defame her.

Her testimony climaxed a day of denial of the evidence offered by the defense and when she had finished, both sides rested their cases.

Assistant State's Attorney Milton Smith announced he would take all afternoon for summing up and tomorrow morning would be given over to the defense.

New German President Is Awaited In Berlin

BERLIN, March 11.—Dr. Walther Simons, acting president of Germany, is expected to arrive here today from Leipzig to take over his executive duties.

Frau Ebert, widow of the late president has returned to Heidelberg where her husband was buried. She plans a prolonged rest in the Black forest.

Greek Brigands Attack Yankee Student Party

PARIS, March 11.—Brigands attacked a party of Anglo-American archaeological students near Arta, in the Greek province of the same name, according to reports which were received here today. An American named Logan was injured seriously.

Mitchell Charges Upheld

TELLS SUMS NEEDED TO PROTECT NATION

Aeronautical Expert Fixes $45,000,000 as Amount to Spend Yearly on Air Force to Repulse Invasion

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Brigadier-General William Mitchell's charges of deficiency in the personnel and equipment in the army and navy services were upheld this morning in a report issued by the special House committee which investigated the development of military aeronautics.

By SONIA LEE
For International News Service.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 11.—Forty-five million dollars a year spent on the air service will insure the United States from aggression by any foreign power.

Brigadier-General William A. Mitchell, demoted head of the United States army air service, today included this statement in his outline of the sins of omission on the part of officials charged with the duty of providing the nation's defense.

"Seventeen airplanes," the general said, "constitute the United States' air force. We have approximately 450 flying men. We ought to have 3500 planes and 7,000 or 8,000 flying men, ready for combat service. Ten per cent of that number should constitute our standing force."

"Provisions of this character would cost $45,000,000 a year. It would insure us against aggression."

"The country is no longer open to attack only along the border. The entire land is a frontier and we can protect it only through the air. What good are our ships when they can be sunk in four minutes by a squadron of planes? What good is a land force when it has no eyes in the form of planes?"

"A secretary of national defense should be given a place with the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy in the president's cabinet as one of the first moves in the reform of our national defense. This should form the ministry of defense with three branches—the army, the navy, and the air."

"Constructive work might then be done. As it is the federal government is top heavy—it has too many officials, too many officials. Everyone is interested in keeping his own job."

"The war department dislikes to give up any authority. The navy department is similarly disinclined to adopt the new for the old."

Calls Air Supreme

"In twenty years the navy will be under the water and the land army will be diminished. The air is supreme and the importance of building an air service does not consider the fact that it is protective and invincible. It is an economic asset—if properly handled."

"In times of peace, no other problem facing the people today is equal in importance. A committee of both national houses will hear the facts, disclosing so many stupidities in the conduct of our service."

"We know that airplanes are not being built, that new flyers are not being trained, that this country is the weakest in the world in the air."

"We've asked for a hearing again and again. No air man has an office and so our words didn't mean much. But we've dragged them from their holes and now they must listen."

New Measure To Fight Oil Stock Fakery

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—An important measure passed today by Assembly committee today with favorable recommendation was an amendment to the "blue sky" law granting State Corporation Commissioner E. M. Daugherty twenty additional deputies to wage an energetic campaign against fake oil-stock promoters and traffickers in other alleged spurious stocks. As passed by the Assembly committee on corporations the act provides for an additional $150,000 in the corporation department budget.

Tomb Older Than Tut's Is Unearthed

CAIRO, Egypt, March 11.—Another important archeological discovery has been made at Saqqara, south of Giza, it was learned today. The structure is believed to be the temple of the famous Step Pyramid. Italian excavators have unearthed at Assouan a church belonging to the Eighth century, after Christ.

Treasures and splendors of the tomb discovered near Giza by the Boston Museum-Harvard university expedition will be greater than those found in King Tut's tomb, it was declared today by archeologists.

Already there is to be seen a coffin of alabaster covered with gold leaf. On the coffin is a cartouche or scroll which has made it evident to the expedition that the mummy is that of a member of the royal suite if not of King Seneferu.

Considerable furniture of the third dynasty is in the tomb as well as alabaster vessels and copper ware.

SEN. KENDRICK IS FEDERAL WITNESS

Gives Testimony Concerning Teapot Dome Lease In Government Suit

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 11.—United States Senator John B. Kendrick of Wyoming, was called to the witness stand today by government counsel at the opening of the third day's session of the government equity suit to break the leases on the Teapot Dome naval oil leases.

Former Senator Pomerene questioned his former colleague as to Kendrick's first knowledge of the Teapot lease. Kendrick testified that he received a telegram from Wyoming oil representatives on April 7 asking him to investigate the Teapot negotiations.

Kendrick's activity at the interior department was through his secretary, the senator testified. Kendrick's questioning went on to data concerning communications from H. Foster Bain of the interior department.

Kendrick testified that on April 10, 1922, he did not know the Teapot Dome had been leased and that communications from the interior department at that time indicated that the lease was still under consideration. The lease, it has subsequently been shown, was made on April 7, 1922.

Senator Kendrick testified, he introduced a resolution in the Senate calling for an inquiry into the Teapot negotiations.

Anti-Alien Land-Owning Bill Passed by Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan., March 11.—The Kansas Senate late this afternoon passed the anti-alien land-owning bill, already passed by the House, which bars all persons not eligible to citizenship from owning land in Kansas. The vote was thirty-four for and none against.

MYER RE-NAMED

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Eugene Myer, jr., was re-nominated this afternoon by President Coolidge for another term as director of the War Finance corporation.

Ebert Funeral Tax Deplored By Prussians

BERLIN, March 11.—The Prussian Diet was thrown into an uproar today when a Hitlerite deputy asserted that the funeral of President Ebert cost the Reichstag $750,000 which he called "an irresponsible waste."

Socialist deputies shouted: "Scoundrel!"

'BLACK' FLEET ADVANCE ON DEFENSE

Invading Armada And 'Blue' Defenders Get Ready For Naval Test

ABOARD U. S. S. SEATTLE, with United States Fleet Off Mexican Coast, March 11.—The "black" armada of the United States fleet continued today its relentless advance on the "blue" fleet, which sent out cruisers vainly scouting the sea in a fruitless endeavor to locate the "black" fleet.

Frequent code messages, sent on low power and breaking radio silence, indicated today the final preparation of this great drama which is about to take place. The "blue" destroyers are reported as ready to launch a night attack on the invading "black" fleet. When the "black" fleet has been located the "blue" submarines will probably follow with an attack at daylight, diving under water in an effort to protect its destroyers and reaching a position near the "black" battleships from which numerous torpedoes could be launched.

Submarine Role

Here the submarines will be in great danger, for the speedy destroyers closely surrounding the "black" battleships are ready to attack any periscope that shows itself even for an instant. The submarines hope the sea at the time of their attack will be covered with whitecaps so the telltale wake of their periscopes may escape detection from the keen eyes of the destroyer lookouts. All hands are alert as night shrouds the movements of the two great fleets.

BALE RUTH SAYS MONEY ALL GONE

Sudbury, Mass., Country Home All He Has Left, Claims Ball King

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 11.—Babe Ruth, who for three years has been the foremost ball player in the history of baseball and received $52,000 a season—has comparatively nothing left to-day outside of his country home in Sudbury, Mass., he declared in a statement here today. He admits, however, that the Yankee owners are holding out one-third of his salary each year for his "rainy day."

Ruth's financial standing was disclosed in a statement as a result of a suit brought in New York by Harry Lichtenstein to whom a claim was assigned by Edward J. Callahan for an alleged racing debt incurred by Ruth last summer.

HUSBAND, SPOUSE DEAD IN QUARREL

Long Standing Dissension Ends In Dual Tragedy In Farmer Family

SEDALIA, Mo., March 11.—Clyde Porter, 45, and his wife, Siebe, 32, were both shot and killed today culminating a family quarrel of long standing, according to John Zinn, the slain man's father-in-law, who surrendered to authorities immediately after the double slaying.

Porter first shot and killed his wife, Zinn in turn killing Porter. All are farmers. Three children were orphaned.

Russians Place Orders For 200 Italian Planes

ROME, March 11.—An order for 200 military airplanes has been placed with Italian manufacturers by Russia.

Wilbur Hinted For Position Warren Missed

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Coolidge had on his hands again today the task of choosing an attorney-general. Among those reported under consideration were:

James M. Beck, solicitor-general of the United States; Secretary of the Navy Wilbur; Arthur P. Rugg, chief justice of Massachusetts, a close personal friend of the president; Governor Alex J. Groesbeck of Michigan; Federal Judge and former Senator William S. Kenyon.

President Coolidge today engaged in a series of conferences with administration senators over what is to be done. Almost without exception, it was said, they advised him against resubmitting Warren's name.

There was a constant stream of Republican senators to the White House this morning. By 9:30 o'clock, Senators Watson of Indiana, Reed of Pennsylvania, Wadsworth of New York, Smoot of Utah, Moses of New Hampshire and Cummins of Iowa had called, and these were followed by Harrell of Oklahoma, Pine of Oklahoma, Metcalf of Rhode Island, and Keyes of New Hampshire.

L. A. POLICE SEIZE $400,000 IN LIQUOR

Four Men Surprised As They Unload Consignment From San Pedro

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Surprised as they were unloading $400,000 worth of wines, whiskey and a consignment of grain alcohol, which had been brought into Los Angeles from the harbor district, four men were arrested and the liquor seized by prohibition and police officers today at a Wall street address. The men arrested gave their names as Tony Conero, E. W. Damsler, Floyd Watts and Ole Johnson.

The seizure and arrests were made after the officers had followed the truck bearing the liquor from San Pedro into Los Angeles.

Boy Emperor of China Guarded After Threats

TIEN TSIN, China, March 11.—Because of threats made against his life, the boy emperor of China was closely guarded today in the Japanese concessions of the city.

MOFFETT NAMED

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Rear-Admiral William A. Moffett was re-nominated today by President Coolidge as chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics.

LATEST NEWS

'OPEN PRICE' PROBE PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The Federal Trade commission would be directed to investigate "open price" associations, trade organizations exchanging or distributing price information, under a resolution introduced in the Senate today by Senator McKellar, Democrat, of Tennessee. The inquiry would be required particularly to determine whether these organizations "exert a large influence in maintaining prices at an exorbitant level, especially in the case of manufacturing concerns protected by a high protective tariff."

U. S. PASTOR DECLINES ENGLISH PULPIT

MANCHESTER, England, March 11.—Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New York, although a Baptist by faith, has declined the pastorate of the Manchester Union chapel, it was learned today. The chapel was considering offering its pastorate to Dr. Fosdick, but he was unwilling to consider it. Dr. Fosdick recently resigned his New York pastorate because of exceptions taken by the Presbytery to his modernist views.

RENDEZVOUS WITH DEATH SUCCESS

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Long a sufferer of melancholy, Sidney Christian, 38, made a rendezvous with death here today and fulfilled it—with difficulties. Police reports show that Christian first slashed his throat. The wound was immediately sewed up and hope was held for his recovery. However, a few minutes later, when left alone, Christian ripped out the stitches and died.

COOLIDGE AND LEADERS TO CONFER ON PROGRAM

President Calls Detroit Man To 'Breakfast' Parley On Next Move

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Whether President Coolidge will again offer the Senate the nomination of Charles B. Warren as attorney-general will be decided at the White House breakfast table tomorrow morning.

Under plans completed today, Warren himself will be present, as well as a number of Republican leaders.

DETROIT, March 11.—Charles B. Warren left today for Washington, in response to a telephonic summons from President Coolidge to discuss the re-submission of Warren's appointment as attorney-general, which the Senate rejected.

Warren refused to say whether he would ask the president not to push the appointment further.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Coolidge was still without an attorney-general today and the capital was recovering from the shock of having witnessed, for the first time in more than half a century, a cabinet appointment rejected by the United States Senate.

Three courses were open to President Coolidge in this almost unprecedented situation:

- 1—He can re-submit at once the name of Charles B. Warren of Michigan, in the face of the Senate's adverse vote.
- 2—He can wait a few weeks until the Senate adjourns and then give Warren a recess appointment.
- 3—He can philosophically accept defeat such as no president since Andrew Johnson has suffered and select another candidate for attorney-general.

While the White House remained silent today in the face of the Senate resolution, speculation was rampant as to what action the president will take in his efforts to complete his cabinet.

To Accept Defeat?

The belief generally prevailed that Mr. Coolidge will accept the inevitable and look around for a new attorney-general. If he follows the advice of administration leaders in the Senate this will be his course—for none of them today professed to see any chance

AUTO SHOW LURES BIG CROWDS

FINE OPPORTUNITY TO COMPARE CARS

Dealers Welcome Public and Are Glad to Explain Features; Entertainers Present Creditable Program

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff

Another 2500 people laid their flat dime on the counter last night to see the first annual automobile show of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association, bringing the total who have now seen this $200,000 car carnival to over 10,000, it was reported by P. A. Kelley, show chairman, after the box office on Brand boulevard at Magnolia avenue closed at 10:30 o'clock.

Last night the crowds seemed to center their attention on the 100 cars assembled. They examined the various makes and models critically, asking many technical questions of the various dealers and salesmen.

Potential Buyers

In the words of Lyman P. Clark, president of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association:

"These crowds were full of potential buyers. Hundreds had already seen the show and had come back to devote more attention to the cars themselves. Last night they began to get down to the matter of making comparisons."

"An automobile show offers the car buyer an exceptional opportunity to see all the standard makes of cars gathered under one roof. Here the man or woman who is in the market for a car can survey the field with the least physical effort and the most enjoyment."

"Compare the advantages of an automobile show with shopping all over town for a car, perhaps spending many days before all the leading agencies have been visited. In two or three nights at a show like this, every car can be seen and studied. It then remains only to take one or two demonstrations—and the car that suits that particular family has been selected."

Dealers Pleased

"This is one of the real reasons why automobile shows are held, and the Glendale public has been quick to take advantage of this unique opportunity to see the cars of all its leading local dealers. We are so well pleased with the show that there is no question but that we will make it an annual affair."

Last night Millie Marlowe and her troupe of high-class professional entertainers put on the musical revue, "A Breath of Old Spain," beautifully costumed and containing a variety of comedy, novelty and ensemble numbers, featuring Hazel Boyd and Willis West. The revue opened with an Oriental ensemble. A jazz dance number and a toe dance number were both excellent and the concluding Spanish ensemble deserved particular praise.

Buy in Glendale

Speaking before the revue went on, Harry LaBaque said:

"These shows usually charge 50 cents admission. The admission of 10 cents charged by the present show is dirt cheap and is in no way an indication of the value received. The price is down to rock bottom because we want all Glendale to see this show before it closes Saturday night, March 14."

"If you live in Glendale, have children and they go to school here; if you want good streets like Central avenue, which was opened last Saturday night with a fitting celebration; if you want your city to grow and prosper, you must patronize your local automobile dealers, who provide the biggest payroll in the city and go a long way toward keeping it in a prosperous condition."

Prizes Awarded

Following the revue Mr. LaBaque distributed some valuable prizes to lucky persons. Robert Mosher, a pupil at the Glendale Intermediate school, won one of these prizes, a $5 bill. Asked what he would do with it, the little boy replied that he would put it in the bank. This got a laugh out of the audience.

Raymond Holland of Los Angeles won a similar prize. Asked what he was doing in Glendale, he replied:

"Oh, just looking around."

"There goes some of our money!" laughed Harry LaBaque, "but it's worth it, to have 'em come over from Los Angeles and look around Glendale."

Walter Grayson, a Glendale resident, also won a $5 bill. Asked what kind of a car he drives, he admitted it is a Studebaker, purchased from the Packer Auto Co., local distributors of that make of machine.

Mr. LaBaque announced that tonight he will give away additional prizes to lucky patrons of the automobile show. On Thursday night valuable prizes will be given away by the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association, he added, and on Saturday night a miniature automobile for a child will be given away.

Sojourner Masons To Meet Next Sunday

A. M. Dewey, who was recently elected chairman of a group of Masons to organize a local Masonic lodge composed entirely of sojourners in Glendale and vicinity, has called another meeting for 3 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, March 15, in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard. Mr. Dewey states that more than 400 members of Glendale Pyramid of Sojourners are not affiliated with any blue lodge in this vicinity, and many will probably join the lodge for sojourners.

JENSEN'S ARCADE SHOPS SET STYLE

Spring Fashion Exhibit Will Open Tomorrow Showing Milady's Dress

The spring opening of shops in Jensen's Arcade will be held tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock when new styles will be exhibited by Glendale young women and displayed in the shops. A special musical entertainment will be presented throughout the afternoon and refreshment will be served. Shops participating in the opening are: Marion Elizabeth shop owned by Grace G. McCleery; Melba Jeanne shop owned by Melba Russell; Sherrod's owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sherrod, and the Gift, Art and Needlework shop owned by Mrs. Laura B. Hamilton. Glendale young women will exhibit millinery from the Marion Elizabeth shop. Imported picture hats, garden, sports and dress hats in all of the high spring colors will be shown.

The large picture hats trimmed with flowers and ribbons are the predominating styles in milady's headress this season. Dresses to be shown by the Melba Jeanne shop include afternoon, evening frocks and sports, and silk and woolen coats will be displayed.

Newest Creation

The lace dress over a silk slip is the newest thing for afternoon wear and is trimmed with a gay colored sash. Two of the most beautiful evening frocks which will be shown are of taffeta and chiffon, one being a figured chiffon over a taffeta slip and trimmed with lace and the other an ombre yellow taffeta dress trimmed with hand embroidery. Both dresses, and in fact, nearly all of the dresses shown for evening, are made in the quaint basque style with full skirts. A number of silk coats will be shown by the Melba Jeanne shop. Sherrod's will have on display all of the late styles in corsets, specializing in the popular rubber reducing corsets which slenderize the figure. These corsets may be obtained at Sherrod's in all the standard makes including Madam X, Miracle, Gossard, Nemolastik, Jane Jackson and Mysteria. The new wrap around corset girdles featuring the popular makes of Gossard, Nemo and Bon Ton will also be seen. Chiffon hosiery in all new shades for spring wear to match every color of dress worn this spring will be exhibited.

Luxite Lingerie

Luxite lingerie is one of the lines of lingerie in which Sherrod's specializes and some beautiful garments have recently arrived for the opening. This underwear may be obtained in shades of flesh, mountain haze, peach, orchid, maize and is made in bloomer, vests, and envelope chemise styles. One particularly attractive envelope chemise is trimmed with real Venetian lace. Mrs. Laura B. Hamilton of the Gift, Art and Needlework shop is arranging a special display of plastic models for the opening. All varieties of stamped goods, and a beautiful line of gifts will be shown. Mrs. Hamilton recently purchased the shop and is planning to start a class in china painting and painting of parchment lamp shades. An artistic display of art goods is being arranged for the opening.

Glendale Represented In Play At Occidental

Glendale people are interested in the forthcoming production at Occidental college by the Arden Players of "Enter Madame," by Gilda Varese and Dolly Byrne, because Eleanor Sawyer and Jack Lawson of Glendale are included in the cast. Miss Sawyer is taking the leading part. Jack Lawson, who is president of the Arden Players, is portraying the part of the son.

The story is of a prima donna, an Italian opera singer, married to an unimaginative American business man.

MAY FORM CLUB

BISBEE, Ariz., March 11.—Hal Chase, the former famous American league baseball player, now operating a cafe at Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, has been approached by an official of the Mexican government on the proposition of organizing a baseball league in Mexico. It was learned here. The former star first baseman said he expected to go to Mexico City to discuss the plan.

EDITORIAL

The Lesson of the Auto

We are assured that Glendale's automobile show will be an annual event, thanks to the enterprise of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association and the response of the people who are attending the show.

There is a fascination about a motor car that no one can resist. The richest and the poorest, the oldest and the youngest, the greatest and the least all turn to look at a shiny new car. And the people of Glendale and neighboring cities are taking advantage of the opportunity to feast their eyes upon the latest, the most powerful and most beautiful models of cars, as well as those which combine utility and inexpensiveness, for our first automobile show is in full swing at the big tent on South Brand at Magnolia, where crowds are nightly enjoying the unique music revues and vaudeville performances as well as the motor car exposition.

But there is something more to this show than the music, the bright lights, the good nature of the crowds and the glittering exhibits. To those who look beneath the surface there is a lesson in civic patriotism here. And this lesson teaches us that Glendale people are obligated to patronize every branch of the motor industry in Glendale and thus help to build up the community and encourage local enterprise.

If every one of our automobile dealers should fail to make a sale the coming year, who is so stupid that he cannot picture the result? Glendale would go backward. All real estate would take a slump, empty buildings would replace our beautiful salesrooms on automobile row, there would be no automobile show next year and these progressive dealers would not be digging down in their pockets constantly for the wherewithal to advance community interests as business men in all lines are forced to do. We all know that the community as a whole would suffer irreparable loss with the failure of the automobile business in Glendale. Taking Glendale business away from Glendale dealers is equivalent to taking the lifeblood of the community.

Then isn't it as plain as a pikestaff that the more patronage we give our automobile dealers and those engaged in allied work, the better it will be for us—the community? The more these dealers receive in the way of encouragement and patronage, the more they will give to Glendale in the way of good citizenship, enterprise, as exemplified by the auto show, patronage of Glendale stores, taxes and contributions to community interests and improvements. One hundred per cent patronage of the auto industry in Glendale by Glendale people will quicken the business life of the entire community, and all local enterprise and local values depend upon this very thing.

Glendale's first automobile show is a worthy effort and a great success. It depends upon the Glendale people who buy and use cars to make it bigger and better next year.

Honks Along Gasoline Row

People all over Southern California are casting their optics in the direction of the big tent at Brand boulevard and Magnolia avenue. Thursday afternoon Managing Secretary A. M. Robertson of the Oxnard C. of C. is bringing the Lemon Products' show committee down to Glendale to give the Motor Car Dealers' first annual automobile show the once-over, in preparation for their own event, which goes on May 24.

And Friday afternoon a large delegation of motor car dealers from Monrovia are coming up to "the fastest growing city" to get pointers for a forthcoming auto show. Among them will be W. L. Schutze, Hudson-Essex dealer; W. M. Neal, Nash dealer, and Messers. Sapp and Mikren, Buick agents.

Now meet J. Schreyer of Los Angeles, "old pathfinder," a veteran motorist who's been wheeling his gas buggy over the countryside for a quarter of a century. He's mapped over 350,000 miles of auto roads, from Frisco to Boston and from Walla Walla to Hohokus. But tired? Say, he's the liveliest wire at the automobile show. He's a member of the Old Timers' club, that's why.

F. E. Williamson, in charge last night at the Standard Oil booth, declares the crowds bigger each succeeding night of the show. He is the smiling gent in white who dispenses gas and oil and gives away water and air at the Standard station on Brand boulevard at Los Feliz road.

Tru-Drum takes those coo-koo noises out of brakes, and he can prove it, declares Charlie Good, manager of the All-Service garage on Glendale avenue at Harvard street. He proved it to a lot of folks last night, at his booth. Tru-Drum is a machine or something. Anyway, it goes round and round—making the break drums rounder.

The Court Motor Co. has taken on fifty feet more space at the show and is now exhibiting six models of 1925 Cadillacs. A special display is being made of a nifty sport phaeton, with a special paint job and looking like a million dollars in Liberty bonds. William H. Court, proprietor of the agency, is much in evidence around this booth, surrounded by Cadillac enthusiasts.

And say, try and find William H. Daniel, Packard distributor in Glendale! There's only one way, and that's to listen until you hear from the center of an intent crowd looking over his line of sixes and eights. When you hear that voice, you know the head of the Dixie Motor Co. isn't far off.

W. H. Burnett and L. C. Roberts held forth last night at the Shell Oil of California booth. They craved no publicity—but lo and behold! Here, nevertheless, are their names in print.

The Rottler bar, demonstrated last night by C. R. Eymann at the Monarch Auto Supply Co. booth, rebore a cylinder in three minutes. Some speed, brother!

This is confidential. Don't tell a soul. Detective Sergeant F. C. Williams of the Glendale police department, who was sleuthing around the show last night, treated R. E. Roubush of the city engineer's department to a bottle of soda pop!

The chassis was popular with the public last night. At every booth where a stripped model was displayed, crowds gathered. The Dodge, the Studebaker, the Buick, the Nash, the Chevrolet, all had super-audiences waiting to know how things worked in a car's innards.

"This is a buying crowd," Harry LaBaque slipped up and said. "These people mean business. From my experience, I would say that a large number of sales would result from this show."

Ray Fry, two and a half years with the Jesse E. Smith Co., selling Fords, Fordsons and Lincolns, has transferred to the Kelly Motor Co. and will henceforth sell Fords and Essexes, reports P. A. Kelley, president of this company, and, please note, chairman of the show committee of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association.

Four Hupmobiles have been sold off the floor and two more have been delivered since the opening of the show, it is reported by H. W. Swanson, Glendale, Hollywood and Pasadena dealer for this line.

"And wasn't that a good little entertainment program Miss Millie Marlowe put on?" said Andy Gump to Mrs. Dooley, after the show.

"I'll say!" replied that rotund lady, bouncing herself up and down on the back seat of the car of her choice.

ARTISTS GIVE PROGRAM AT REDLANDS

Symphony Orchestra Boosts Glendale By Concert In Foothill City

Greeted by an enthusiastic audience which completely filled the Contemporary clubhouse in Redlands last night, the Municipal Symphony orchestra of Glendale, with several assisting artists, offered a musical program of varied numbers as one more link in the series of out-of-town concerts which are rapidly spreading the fame of this organization and its home city.

The Glendale party, numbering about forty, left this city at 5 o'clock, making the trip in a large bus and several private automobiles. The Redlands audience was waiting in the clubhouse and the program opened with community singing by J. Arthur Myers, director of the Glendale orchestra. Mrs. G. E. Mullen, president of the Redlands Community Music association, then introduced R. Ernest Tucker, Glendale superintendent of recreation, and George J. Lyons, president of Glendale Community Service. The latter expressed greetings from Glendale and from Mayor Spencer Robinson, who was prevented from making the trip by ill health.

Program Given

The program following the introduction included soprano solos by Mrs. Virginia Freeman, violin numbers by A. Lowinsky, with Mrs. Lowinsky at the piano; baritone selections by Milford C. Jackson, and two groups by the orchestra. Mr. Myers leading and Mrs. Gertrude Erb at the piano. Both solo and group numbers drew enthusiastic response from the Redlands audience.

Following the program an informal reception was given the Glendale party and refreshments served. The musicians making the trip on the bus also received special sandwiches and cakes through the courtesy of Sheridan's Grocery and the Rollin' Pin Shop of Glendale.

Orchestra Members

Members of the orchestra making the trip included the following: G. W. Pierce, Mrs. Gertrude Erb, D. F. Crawford, Miss Ruth Paldi, L. H. Morgan, W. A. Reed, Miss Ethel Parsons, Miss Frances Payne, A. Lowinsky, W. A. Stoll, D. R. Smith, G. A. Fielstrom, Miss Marjorie Potts, Lloyd Knapp, Miss Ruth Goldsborough, Harry Martin, J. F. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Lippold, William Bode, Francis and Paul Ricksecker, Roy Biddlecomb, Dr. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Swineheart, Harold Korn and W. S. Hunter. The party also included Mr. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Lowinsky, Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Pierce.

Stone Tile Product Is Tested For Resistance

Tests recently made under the supervision of the Industrial Testing laboratory showed load-bearing strength of concrete tile, brick and clay tile. Three masonry columns each twelve inches square and five feet high were built of clay brick, clay tile and "stone-tile," a hollow concrete building tile, and the piers tested for compressive strength. The clay tile pier failed under a load of thirty tons, the clay brick pier fifty tons and the stone-tile pier seventy-five tons. All materials used were obtained by the Laboratory on the market.

According to R. E. Johnston, of the Concrete Brick & Tile Co., manufacturers of stone-tile in Glendale, ordinances and building codes are constantly being revised to conform to the different types of standard construction.

"Recently in answer to an inquiry for data on the load-bearing quality of stone-tile these tests were made," said Mr. Johnston. "The results give evidence of the remarkable load these materials are capable of carrying, which is very much in excess of that usually credited to them and actually in excess of building code requirements."

PREDICTS BIG FUTURE FOR COLORADO BOULEVARD

VERDUGO WOODLANDS ASSOCIATION FORMED

L. H. Myers Elected President of New Improvement Organization; Bonds For Gas Discussed at Meeting

The Verdugo Woodlands Improvement association was welded into a permanent organization last night at a meeting held at the Community Center building, Sparr Heights. L. H. Myers was elected president. It was decided to hold meetings on the second Tuesday night of each month at the same place. At the meeting to be held the night of April 14, additional officers will be elected.

The matter of securing legislation that will release the $50,000 of unused gas bonds for municipal improvement district No. 6, now held in the city treasury, was discussed and a committee appointed to take up with the bonding company the question of redeeming the bonds.

Morrow to Help
It was decided to wire Ray L. Morrow, city attorney, who is in Sacramento seeking legislation to relieve the situation, asking him to seek passage of an enabling act that will refund the money and save the interest on the bonds to the taxpayers.

Leslie R. Tarr, deputy city attorney, outlined the history of the bond tangle, showing that the Southern California Gas Co. had installed the gas mains in Verdugo Woodlands subsequent to the sale of the bonds.

Councilmen Present
Councilmen S. A. Davis, H. G. MacBain and C. E. Kimlin represented the Glendale City Council at the meeting. There were present also M. Walters of the Barium-Walters Co., Sparr Heights developers; L. H. Myers of Twinning & Myers, realtors who have extensive developments in Verdugo Woodlands; J. M. Boland, tor.

Rebekah Lodge Thanks News For Publicity

Appreciation of Glendale Rebekah lodge officers and members for publicity given the organization by The Glendale Evening News is voiced by Fanny E. Groutage, recording secretary, who writes to The News: "On behalf of the officers and members of Glendale Rebekah lodge, No. 257, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of the splendid announcements and news items published on various occasions in your paper, and to extend to your reporters and staff our sincere thanks for kindness and co-operation shown in the past. Best wishes for success of your organization."

Birthday Dinner Held For Louis L. Baker

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Klam, 1826 East Vassar street, were hosts at a dinner last night celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Klam's father, Louis L. Baker. All of Mr. Baker's children were present with the exception of the youngest son, Leland Paul Baker, who was called to San Francisco on business.

Meeting Is Held By Grand View Scouts

Members of troop 17, Grand View Boy Scouts, held a social meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Cole, 1741 Glenoaks boulevard. Twenty-five members of the troop with Scoutmaster George W. Thomas were present for the meeting, featuring games and scout work. Refreshments were served.

FIRE HAZARD SURVEY URGED FOR GLENDALE

Chamber of Commerce Officials Will Request City Council to Invite Underwriters' Engineers Here

A survey of fire hazards and fire-fighting facilities in the city of Glendale, to be made by the fire prevention and engineering department of the National Board of Fire Underwriters of America, will be urged by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. Secretary Howard I. Wood, Percy J. Hayselden and George L. Kaeding will go before the City Council and request that an invitation to the fire underwriters to make the survey be extended.

This action was decided upon at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors last night after Mr. Kaeding, representing the Lions club, had explained the nature of the proposed survey and asked that the chamber take steps to have the fire underwriters come to Glendale. There is no cost connected with the work. Mr. Kaeding pointed out. The directors voted to ask the City Council to extend such an invitation.

Need Prompt Action
Mr. Kaeding told the chamber directors that prompt action could be expected and that a corps of competent engineers would make the survey, at the completion of which a detailed report of fire conditions would be issued with recommendations. Mr. Kaeding suggested that the work be done before any additional city money be spent on fire apparatus. He said that the survey had the endorsement of the Lions club.

Endorsement of the proposed twenty-four hour school law, providing district institutions for younger wardward boys, was deferred by the directors, the matter being referred to the educational committee for recommendation. The proposed school law was brought to the attention of the board by L. T. Rowley, Glendale school attendance officer. He pointed out that present institutions for boys in Southern California are overcrowded and that youthful criminals are allowed to run at large and associate with other boys of the school and community unchecked. He said the twenty-four hour school law would care for such boys.

The board of directors appointed C. H. Kirkman as chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Boy Scout committee. George F. Orgibet was named chairman of a special committee to arrange Chamber of Commerce nights at the different theatres in the city.

No Recommendation Made
The board declined to make recommendation to state legislators in the matter of proposed amendments to the state crematory law. A. W. Robins, Los Angeles manager for the Crescent Creamery, appeared before the directors and recommended the measure be endorsed. He said it aimed at clearer distinction between butter and oleomargarine when sold on the market. Because of lack of time to consider the matter through reference to the legislative committee, the board failed to take any action.

Glendale postoffice employees, in a communication read at the board meeting last night, thanked the directors for their interest in the recent salary fight made by the postmen. Dr. T. C. Young gave a general report on the forthcoming Glendale air rodeo to be staged at Glendale airport on Saturday and Sunday. D. H. Smith presided at the meeting.

Glendale Osteopaths Attend L. A. Meeting

Several Glendale osteopaths attended the meeting in Los Angeles last night of the Osteopathic Surgical society. Dr. Norman W. Giesy, health officer of Monterey district, Los Angeles, spoke on "Prevention of the Plague and Other Contagious Diseases." He told of the fight against the recent plague epidemic and of the successful work done. He made a strong appeal for the passing of a bill to bring all minor city corporations under the state housing act for protection of the city, smaller towns and country. Dr. Curtis Brigham spoke on "Sir James McKenzie's Contribution to Medical Research." Other speakers were: Dr. W. V. Goodfellow, Dr. T. J. Ruddy, Dr. W. T. Hurt, Dr. Ernest G. Bashor.

Officials Of Church To Meet Tomorrow

The session of the Junior Grand View church will hold a meeting tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hall, 1123 Justin avenue, in the pastor's study. Rev. George W. Thomas, pastor of the Grand View church, requests that all members be present. The Junior choir will hold rehearsal at 7 o'clock at the Hall home.

Fellowship Dinner Is Plan Of Methodists

Mid-week services at the Broadway Methodist church, south, will be resumed tomorrow night with the fellowship dinner at 6 o'clock, followed by a community Bible class, in charge of Rev. Maurice M. Johnson, pastor. Miss Mildred Coleville of Los Angeles will render special vocal selections.

Broadway Methodist Directors Call Meeting

The board of stewards of the Broadway Methodist church, south, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock, at the church.

151 Producing Industries In Greater City

There are 151 productive industrial and commercial plants in the greater Glendale industrial district. Of these, 125 are within the limits of the city. The other 26 are located immediately adjacent to Glendale and are considered a part of the Glendale district. These facts have been brought out in the industrial survey now being made by M. N. Alderman, industrial engineer for the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

OIL MAN ELECTED TO PYTHIAN OFFICE

George Edwards Named To Succeed King Resigned In Master Position

Knights of Pythias held a business meeting last night at the castle hall, corner of South Brand boulevard and Park avenue. George H. King tendered his resignation as master of works, giving press of business as his reason for resigning. George Edwards was elected and installed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Edwards is manager of the Standard Oil Co. plant at Colorado street and San Fernando road.

S. E. Wright, E. E. Fram and R. E. Frey were elected delegates to the grand lodge convention, which meets June 1 at Santa Rosa. Glendale lodge will send a delegation to Hollywood tomorrow night and those making the trip will leave the hall at 7 o'clock. The district convention, which has headquarters at Los Angeles, has been invited to attend the meeting next Tuesday night, as this is the regular visiting night of Hollywood, Van Nuys and Burbank.

Security Bank's Radio Bill Tomorrow Night

R. F. Kitterman, vice-president and manager of the Glendale Security bank, announces that the regular Security radio program will be broadcast Wednesday night from KNX, between 8 and 9 o'clock. It will be a concert recital by Joseph Diskay, tenor, and Joseph Vidor, pianist, the two Hungarian artists who gave an hour of Hungarian music for the Security two weeks ago. They were so well-liked that they have been engaged for a return recital by popular request. Vidor will play several Chopin numbers and Diskay will sing several Italian and German classics, including songs by Brahms, Schubert and Wolf.

Fellowship Class Host To Wives And Guests

Men of the Fellowship class of First Methodist church entertained their wives at a class dinner last night at the church, fifty-five members and guests being present. Dr. S. Welch, president, directed a class meeting. Mrs. Conners sang, accompanied by Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Jack Honberg read. J. F. Henry was in charge of the program.

L. A. IMPROVEMENTS AFFECT THIS CITY

G. Gordon Whitnall, Planning Commission Executive, Tells of Great Travel to Pass Along Local Thoroughfare

G. Gordon Whitnall, manager of the Los Angeles Planning commission, told a Glendale audience that filled the City Council chambers last night that:

- 1—When the bridge across the Los Angeles river at Colorado street, connecting with Riverside drive, is completed, Colorado boulevard will become the backbone of Glendale's highway system, and, with its main cross streets, Glendale avenue, Brand boulevard and Central avenue, will form the focal point for the entire lower San Fernando valley area.
- 2—Colorado boulevard must be widened to at least 100 feet, if the full benefit of improvements now being made by Los Angeles are to be enjoyed by Glendale.
- 3—The plan to depress the Southern Pacific tracks all the way from Los Angeles to San Fernando, as proposed in action already taken by the Los Angeles City Council is the only solution of grade crossing problems in Glendale to meet with the approval of the Southern Pacific authorities.

Mr. Whitnall, speaking before members of the Colorado Boulevard Improvement association, confined himself to a discussion of improvements either under way or contemplated, which directly affect both Glendale and Los Angeles. The speaker told of Riverside drive and the river truck highway. He said that the bridge across the river at Colorado street will be a reality within one year, and that work on the structure will commence as soon as Riverside drive is completed. "With the completion of this bridge, Colorado boulevard, in Glendale, will become the main connecting link for east-and-west travel all the way from San Bernardino to the sea. It will be the backbone of Glendale's road system and will constitute the focal point through which the great bulk of travel will have to pass. "Glendale has not grasped the magnitude of improvements now being made by Los Angeles. She must come to realize that to benefit to the fullest degree, projects started in Los Angeles must be carried out by further improvements in Glendale. Widening of Colorado street its entire length is a paramount necessity, if Glendale is to do her part in building a great thoroughfare from the desert to the ocean."

Mr. Whitnall said that the Los Angeles City Council has already extended an invitation to the Glendale City Council, requesting this city to join in an application to the State Railroad commission for a complete survey and study of the grade-crossing problem along the Southern Pacific right-of-way. The plan for depression of the tracks, tentatively agreed upon by Los Angeles and Glendale, meets with the approval of the railroad officials themselves. Mr. Whitnall said. Depression of the tracks is an absolute necessity at the present time, he declared.

S. C. Kinch, president of the Colorado Boulevard Improvement association, presided over the meeting last night. No other business was transacted, the entire time being turned over to Mr. Whitnall, who spoke for more than an hour.

Music Department Of Club To Hear Program

Mrs. Lura J. Burris has arranged a musical program for Friday afternoon at the meeting of the music department of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Mrs. Roberta T. Young, curator, will preside over the meeting at 2:30 o'clock. Later Mrs. Burris will present Mrs. Roger Fitz, soloist of Glendale Methodist church, who will sing "Ave Maria" and a solo from "La Traviata," accompanied by Mrs. Alice Ripley; Will Meyers, choir director and leader of community singing, who will sing two solos from "Falstaff"; Miss Crumb of Burbank, violinist; Mrs. Lillian E. Wilkinson, student under Labegott and Poulin of Los Angeles, light opera singer in New York city, Columbus, Ohio, and other eastern cities, who will sing solos from "The Requiem"; Mrs. A. H. Peabody, pianist, who will play a selection from "Rigoletto" and also play accompaniments; Mr. Bates from Boston, Mass., a new-comer to Los Angeles, who will sing songs from "Il Trovatore"; and Mrs. Cora Thorn Bud of Los Angeles, who will sing two songs by Verdi.

THE REAL SECRET—

Of success is to do your work better than you were expected to do it.
Of happiness is to fall in love with the things you have to do.
Of beauty is to have a spirit free from ugliness.
Of power is to be ready for emergencies before they occur.
Of popularity is to make every man feel that he is of importance.
Of fashion is to do the thing other people are doing and do it first.
Of politics is to put into action the highest aspirations of the people.

A WORLD TONGUE

The necessity for a universal language has long been felt and now that the world is being drawn closer together through improved and more rapid means of travel and communication, the need is becoming more imperative. Efforts made to invent an artificial language, such as Esperanto, for international use have proved failures. It is much more probable that the world will accept some living language as the universal tongue and, according to William H. Easton of the Westinghouse company, the chances are that this language will be English.

Successful reception of American radio broadcasts in foreign countries will hasten the necessity of an international language and will encourage the world to accept English as that language.

All will not agree with Mr. Easton when he says that English is the simplest tongue to learn in general use, although we are rid of the useless inflections and such absurdities as grammatical genders which are involved in many languages. A foreign woman wrestling with the English language found herself very much baffled by our wealth of idioms, and when a man told her he had "changed his mind" she thought him ridiculous if not positively indecent.

But the chief reason for making English the universal language lies in its being the native speech of some 150,000,000 people, with German, which is spoken by 120,000,000, next in line. And English is the second language of untold millions, as those who have traveled abroad can testify.

The advantage of a living language over an artificial one as a means of universal communication is apparent to everyone. The one who learns English opens up to himself a wealth of the world's best literature as well as untold commercial possibilities.

ENTERTAINING CARAVANS

A big caravan of motorists from the Pacific northwest is to tour California next month. The coming of caravans from any part of the country is to be encouraged. This manner of travel makes it easy for the people visited to entertain their guests, for hospitality may be extended to them in groups.

The complaint is sometimes heard that the people of Southern California are not sociably inclined and that it is hard for visitors and newcomers to get acquainted. The trouble is that it is often difficult to distinguish the old residents from the newcomers. In a section where so many of us are adopted citizens it is sometimes a question of who should welcome and who should be welcomed. One who has been here a few years may complain that the people are selfish and it is hard to make friends, yet he should be welcoming some of the many hundreds who have come still more recently. If we were all compelled to wear a placard giving the date of our arrival, then we could safely go around extending the glad hand to the visitors and newcomers.

When visitors come in caravans we know they are visitors and so it is easy to welcome and entertain them. Glendale, as a community, should be prepared to offer every hospitality to these people from the northwest and to every caravan that comes this way. Visitors who are well treated and who have a good time will not only wish to come again, but they will tell all their friends at home what a fine place they visited and what splendid people were their hosts.

COUNTRY WITH MITCHELL

General Mitchell's demotion to the rank of colonel was merited, according to the rules of the army, but the intrepid airman has had the sympathy of the people throughout his controversy with the army and navy departments, and his fight for a unified air service. It is but natural that the army and navy portfolios should oppose Mitchell, for he would eliminate both departments and substitute at the cabinet table a Secretary of National Defense who would have assistants in charge, respectively, of land, water and air defenses; combining the airman under one command, whether they serve the army, navy or postoffice department. To the layman such a proposal is logical and would seem to be calculated to promote efficiency. Furthermore, testimony and tests have both tended to put Mitchell in the right as to the relative merits of the battleship and the airplane as a means of defense.

General Mitchell has displeased his chief who had the power to relegate him to a position where he will be less dangerous to the hidebound traditions and ideas of the army and navy. But the people of the country are thinking and they are wondering if it were undiluted patriotism and unselfish devotion to the country's best interests alone that prompted the opposition to General Mitchell and his proposals.

THE GAS TAX

The report of the highway advisory committee filed with Governor Richardson last week reveals that eight out of nine members of the committee favor the increase in the gasoline tax which is "as popular as any tax could be, is conveniently paid, easily collected and administered, and is the only practical method of reaching highway users from other states."

Engineer E. E. East of this city, representing the automobile club, and J. B. Gill were members of the committee who filed minority reports, both insisting that a districting arrangement be worked out by means of which Southern California, which produces 57 per cent of the revenue from the gas tax, would get 57 per cent of the highway work instead of only 43 per cent, as is the case now. Mr. East in his report opposed the increase in the gasoline tax.

Of course all of Southern California is with these two minority members of the committee in their demand for a fair proportion of the tax spent here in Southern California, where it is paid.

Shakespeare thought we might reform by hanging all the lawyers; but we can't do it by hanging all the juries.

Everybody agrees government should use drastic measures, but not all agree as to whom they should be used on.

About the only things left that haven't been called un-American are the names "Smith" and "Jones."

PLUGGING IT!

Refuge

By DR. FRANK CRANE

The only refuge from disagreeable conditions and environment outside, is in greatness inside. There is no use trying to fight littleness with littleness, nor to put out the flames of petty annoyance with the gasoline of opposition.

We must retreat within ourselves and be above the things that annoy us or there is no permanent solution of the question.

I am in receipt of a letter from a man who writes as follows:

"I have followed up your editorials on different things for some months, but there is one you forgot to write, and that is, a wife's attitude to a husband who is sick and out of employment. I am the man, and I haven't education enough to write just as I feel, but I have been put out of a home that I paid rent for just because my wife sees other men stronger and better looking and employed. This just got the woman disgusted with me. I was a jealous man and it came out one evening. Can't you write something that will draw her to her right mind. I have a daughter sixteen years old and she is right with her mother. I do not want her to be against her mother, but how do I feel?"

"I am heart-broken. Please do not publish this letter; just write your ideas of it in your earliest publication."

I have not published all of the letter and hence have, to a degree at least, complied with my correspondent's request.

From the whole case, it may be an unpleasant thing to say, but it seems to me the man is suffering from littleness. He has allowed himself to be swamped with self-pity and in circumstances that are disagreeable.

He needs to develop his own soul into strength and courage and patience and to have an outlook within himself, that shall enable him to see past his immediate vicissitudes.

Greatness or loftiness is even better than goodness. The road to it is hard and often lies over one's prostrate self, but the end renders it worth while the taking.

Of course, not being conversant with all of the circumstances, my judgment in this matter may be incorrect, as so much depends upon personalities, but in the average I think that I am right.

The Best of Advice

By CLARK KINNARD

Care should be taken not to build the happiness of life upon a "broad foundation"—not to require a great many things in order to be happy.

It was learned long ago that happiness on such a foundation is the most easily undermined; it offers many more opportunities for accidents; and accidents are always a happening.

Schopenhauer observed that the architect of happiness follows a plan in this respect just opposite of that adopted in every other case, where the broadest foundation offers the greatest security.

Accordingly, reducing your claims to happiness to the lowest possible degree, in comparison with your means—of whatever kind these may be—is the surest way of avoiding extreme misfortune.

To make extensive preparations for life—no matter what form they may take—is one of the greatest and commonest of follies, it seemed to Schopenhauer.

"Such preparations presuppose, in the first place, a long life, the full and complete term of years appointed to man—and how few reach it! and even if it be reached; it is still too short for all the plans that have been made; for to carry them out requires more time than was thought necessary at the beginning.

"And then, how many mischances and obstacles stand in the way, how seldom the goal is ever reached in human affairs.

"And lastly, even though the goal be reached, the changes which time works in us have been left out of the reckoning; we forget that the capacity whether for achievement or for enjoyment does not last a whole lifetime."

So we often toil for things which are no longer suited to us when we attain them; and again, the years we spend in preparing for some work, unconsciously rob us of the power of carrying it out.

How often it happens that a man is unable to enjoy the wealth which he acquired at so much trouble and risk, and that the fruits of his labor are reserved for others; or that he is incapable of filling the position which he has won after so many years of toil and struggle.

These are the facts of life which Horace must have had in view, when he lamented the uselessness of all advice.

Who's Who

With the retirement of Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, the United States navy bids good-bye to one more of its conspicuous figures of the world war. At 64 years, which is the retiring age for American soldiers and sailors, Admiral Wilson completes forty-four years' service in the fighting forces of Uncle Sam. The last four years of his service have been ashore as superintendent of the naval academy at Annapolis, where he was graduated in the class of 1881, a classmate of John W. Weeks, secretary of war.

From the time he left Annapolis until he attained the rank of lieutenant was sixteen years. It was another ten years before he was a commander. He was therefore only among the juniors when the Spanish-American war was fought. At length when he was 37 he was given command of the Chester, two years later he was transferred to the North Dakota, a new-type battleship. From 1913 to 1918 he was president of the board of inspection and survey, taking command of the Pennsylvania, flagship of the Atlantic fleet in March, 1916. A year later he was detached to organize the Atlantic patrol force on the eve of our declaration of war against Germany.

In August, 1917, he was at Gibraltar with the Birmingham as flagship, and had attained the rank of rear admiral. He was commander of the United States naval forces in France in 1917, and as vice-admiral held this important command until February, 1919, when he became second in command of the United States fleet. It was at this time he held temporarily the rank of admiral of the United States navy.

Admiral Wilson has the unusual distinction of possessing both the army and navy distinguished service medals. The war department issued him one for his services as commander of the American fleet in French waters during the world war. It was in recognition of the fact that through the efforts of Admiral Wilson's fleet there were no casualties among the troops being transported to France. The navy medal was for meritorious service during the war. Among other medals which have fallen to the lot of Admiral Wilson are the Legion of Honor medal, Spanish War and Victory medals and others presented by foreign governments, including Japan.

'SONNY' WILLIS HELD FOR MURDER

Boy Who Confessed to Save Mother From Prison To Face Juvenile Court

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—That Harold "Sonny" Willis was arrested for the murder of Dr. Benjamin Baldwin was revealed here today with the filing of a report by Probation Officer Earl Ramsey.

The boy was taken into custody yesterday and lodged in juvenile hall to await the decision of the court before which he will appear tomorrow morning. Deputy District Attorney E. J. Dennison will make a motion to dismiss the case on grounds that it is an attempt of the superior court to bring charges against another person when someone has been convicted of the crime.

Webster Sought
If the boy is not released tomorrow he will be held for hearing until March 25.

A state-wide hunt was started today for Bert L. Webster, arrested "son" mate of Mrs. Margaret Willis, convicted of the murder of Dr. Baldwin, by private detectives at the request of S. S. Hahn, the convicted woman's attorney.

15 NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO BOARD

Directors Also Encourage Plural Membership To Swell Roster

Fifteen new members were admitted to the Chamber of Commerce by action of the board of directors last night. The new members are: Hotel Brand, 223 South Brand boulevard; Smart & Final, 109 South Jackson street; Fred McElman, 806 West Doran street; F. Ray Currier, 716 South San Fernando road; Harry Duey, 1615 1/2 San Fernando road; Hille Shoe store, 322 East Broadway; Paul S. BARONESS DE ROPP TO SPEAK AT ATWATER

Titled Visitor to Address Members of Parent-Teacher Association on Friday Afternoon at School

Baroness Ottilie De Ropp will be the speaker at the meeting of the Atwater Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon at the Atwater school. Invitations have been extended by the association to schools of the six districts to attend the meeting and a large number of people are expected.

Mrs. Evelyn G. Pierce of Glendale will give readings. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Dale Vaughn, chairman of hospitality committee. Plans for the May Day festival, to be held May 1 at the Atwater school, will be completed at the meeting, according to Mrs. E. V. Bacon, president. The membership drive, which has been in progress, will also close Friday afternoon. The meeting will open at 2:15 o'clock.

Benefit Card Party
A benefit card party for the Atwater Parent-Teacher association will be held Saturday night, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bacon at 3802 Revere avenue. Mrs. W. Anderson will be the assisting hostess. Tables will be arranged for bridge, five-hundred and whist, and the winners will be awarded prizes. The games will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

MENU SELECTIONS URGED IN HOMES

Mrs. Mae Cunningham To Give Cooking Instructions By Demonstration

"Regular meals served in the ordinary American household should consist of seasonable foods and the menu should be thought out and planned with just as much care as seasonable wearing apparel," was the opinion voiced today by Mrs. Mae Cunningham of Chicago, who is conducting the Thursday Cooking School at the D. L. Gregg Hardware Co., 107 North Brand boulevard. Mrs. Cunningham said that at each of her demonstrations she always planned to make something that was particularly wholesome for that certain time of the year. This week the menu will be apple dumplings with sauce and whole wheat cup cakes. For the attendance prize a raisin pie will be given. Mrs. A. Culbertson of the Sherrod's shop, 133 North Brand boulevard, was awarded the prize last week, a golden angel food cake.

High School To Award Honor Pins Tomorrow

At 9 o'clock tomorrow morning the Broadway high school will award honor pins to the students who during the last semester have maintained an average of 85 or more in each subject. The Broadway high school was the first high school in this region to award honor pins, starting in 1913. Dr. Rufus B. Von Kleinsmid will be the speaker, giving an address on scholarship. Dr. Von Kleinsmid is the president of the University of Southern California and recently returned from South America where he was sent by President Coolidge as the educational representative of the United States. While in Latin-America many honorary degrees were awarded to President Von Kleinsmid by the leading educational institutions of South America. The parents of the honor students and the general public are invited to see the presentation and hear the address of Dr. Von Kleinsmid.

Realty Board To Close First Course of Study

The first semester of the real estate course being conducted under the auspices of the Glendale Realty board will close tomorrow night. The last lesson of the first half of the course will be given at that time. D. C. Casselman, chairman of the education committee, announced today. The realtors meet at the Wilson Intermediate school at 7:30 o'clock. According to Mr. Casselman, registration for the second semester of the course is now open. Virtually all those who signed for the first semester will register again, he said.

Restore Health by Gland Treatment Says Science

According to a recent newspaper dispatch, the vigors of youth have been returned to men of mature age, through the beneficial results received from glandular treatment. This remarkable scientific work has been accomplished by the head physician and surgeon of one of California's State Institutions.

The object of glandular treatment is to wake up the devitalized glands so they may continue their normal function of supplying the vital glandular secretions so necessary to physical energy and perfect health.

Glendogin, the new scientific gland tonic, which is prepared in convenient tablet form, for men and for women, provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Accept no substitutes. Insist on genuine Glendogin, the original gland tonic.

LIONS' FIRE DRIVE MAY LOWER RATES

Underwriters' Survey As Proposed Is Expected To Have Effect

A sweeping survey of fire conditions in Glendale, which may result in drastic reductions in fire insurance rates, will be made by the Fire Underwriters of America as the result of a request to be made by the chamber of commerce, it was announced today at the regular luncheon of the Glendale Lions club.

The chamber was asked to make the request by the Lions, after a preliminary investigation revealed that the national fire underwriters' organization would bear the entire cost, which will be about $10,000. A similar survey has just been completed at San Bernardino. The national association will send engineers to Glendale who will investigate sources of water supply, test the mains, and investigate fire hazards throughout the city. At the end of the survey a complete report will be made both to the Chamber of Commerce and to the fire underwriters.

Examples Cited
In many other cities substantial decreases in insurance rates, sometimes as much as 15 to 20 per cent, have been obtained as a direct result of the survey. In any event, Glendale will learn what must be done in the future to secure insurance rate reductions if conditions are such that they cannot be granted at the present time.

The Lions also adopted a resolution today urging the city council to make a survey of Brand park, recently deeded to the city, for the purpose of ascertaining the cost of making it a municipal golf course. The park contains approximately 800 acres.

Delegates Named
Lions nominated today as delegates to the district convention to be held at San Diego in May, were Frank Brock, Albert Pierce, A. B. Kelley, A. R. Holland, Dr. N. C. Payne, Paul Scoles and E. S. Beggs. Election of delegates will be held March 25. At the district convention effort will be made to obtain the international convention of Lions clubs for California in 1926.

The meeting was held at Cane's Spaghetti station, 1524 East Colorado street.

The program today was in the hands of representatives of the Whittier Lions' club headed by Bert Leslie, president of the State Officers' association of California Lions' clubs. Officers of the local den announced that arrangements are being completed to take part in the district conference that will be held under the auspices of the Lions' den of Santa Monica at the Brentwood Country club. The conference will be attended by approximately 500 members from Southern California.

Senate's Rejection Of Warren Shocks Capital

of a favorable vote on Warren after Tuesday's dramatic scenes. The tie vote, 40 to 40, by which the Senate first showed its aversion to Warren constituted in itself a rejection. The tie could have been broken by Vice-President Dawes had he been there, but the general was caught in a traffic jam between his hotel and the capitol, and arrived too late.

Assured Defeat

An analysis of the vote today disclosed that even had the entire Senate of ninety-six been present, Warren could not have been confirmed. There were sixteen absentees, nine Republicans and seven Democrats. Among the Republican absentees were La Follette of Wisconsin, and Howell of Nebraska, both opposed to Warren, and of Democrats, only two, Underwood of Alabama and Smith of South Carolina, were in the least favorable to the Michigan man. Thus the administration was beaten in any event.

The fact was expected today to be the determining factor in moving the president to drop Warren and select another attorney-general.

PARTY GIVEN FOR MR., MRS. PHILLIPS

Members Of Omar Shrine Tender Housewarming To Glendale Couple

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips of 137 North Orange street were tendered a surprise party last night when members of Omar Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, held a housewarming. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts had planned to spend the evening at the Phillips home. Members of Omar Shrine met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wyvell at 1215 North Brand boulevard and then went to the Phillips home. The evening was spent in playing buncos with prizes awarded to Mrs. Cletelle Hewitt, Miss Barbara Gilman, A. W. Hewitt and E. R. Naudain.

Mrs. Warren Roberts, worthy high priestess of Omar Shrine, on behalf of the Shrine, presented Mrs. Phillips with a copy of Maxfield Parrish's picture "The Canyon." Mrs. Phillips in responding told the members that they were probably unaware of the fact that they were helping her and Mr. Phillips celebrate their eleventh wedding anniversary. An impromptu wedding ceremony was held with Mr. and Mrs. Phillips as the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Evans as bridesmaid, and Robert M. Grumbling as the minister. Forty-four members of Omar Shrine were present.

Those arranging the housewarming were Mesdames Bertha Wyvell, Agnes Allen, Luella Emerick and Grace Browne.

REGENTS FAIL TO AGREE ON U. BRANCH

Deadlock Reported at Meet In Frisco To Choose Southern Site

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—The site for an enlarged southern branch of the University of California remained undecided today following three hours of futile balloting at the meeting here late yesterday of the regents of the university. Only seventeen out of the twenty-four regents were present at the meeting, which was presided over by Governor Richardson, and it is understood the situation was a deadlock. Among the sites considered were the Huntington and Hastings estates offered jointly by Pasadena, South Pasadena, Monrovia, Alhambra, Sierra Madre, Arcadia, San Gabriel and San Marino; and sites in Fullerton, Beverly Hills, Burbank and Palos Verdes.

It was decided not to select a site unless the choice represented the wish of a majority of the entire board of regents. Another meeting was called for March 21, to be held in San Francisco, for the purpose of further considering the offered sites. The site receiving thirteen votes at that time will be selected, it was announced.

Pasadenan Offers Sites

J. B. Colson of Pasadena, appeared before the board of regents with an offer of two sites for the university. He offered one known as the Huntington site, a tract of 205 acres near the Huntington library, just outside of Pasadena, valued at $1,500,000.

The other site offered is known as the Hastings estate and comprises 413 acres valued at $800,000.

No conditions were attached to the Huntington estate offer but a proviso was carried with the offer of the Hastings estate that adjacent property should not be encroached upon.

University Site

Pasadena has a good chance to get the University of California, southern branch, Senator A. Burlingame Johnson said, upon his return to the capital after he had attended a meeting of the University board of regents at San Francisco. He reported the Pasadena site was the only proposed site represented at the meeting.

Objections were raised at the meeting over the Burbank site, it was reported, on account of the industries in that section. Burbank got a few votes, as did some of the others, it is said, but the final decision will be made later.

—and Not One Cent
for Repairs

The real value of the 1925 Star is proven by the service it gives its owners in every-day use. Here's a case in point: Twenty-four Star owners report that they drove an aggregate of 601,317 miles without one cent cost for repairs.

Sounds unusual—yet, based on the reports of 40,000 Star owners on the Pacific Coast, the average cost of replacement parts averages 63c per car. That's what Star gives you in low upkeep cost.

And it does prove the truth of our statement that no car in the low-cost field equals the 1925 Star for day in and day out mechanical performance. And with all that, you drive the best-looking light car designed.

Your dealer has the late models, all with the Million Dollar Motor, with its quick and abundant power—quick acceleration (5 to 25 miles per hour in 4½ seconds)—20% power increase. See the 1925 Star!

STRESS COOPERATION IN PROGRAM FOR DAY

Councilmen Are Guests and Speakers At Luncheon Held Yesterday at Tuesday Afternoon Club

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
Of The Evening News Staff

Civic pride and co-operation were dominant notes in the Tuesday Afternoon club program yesterday, from the luncheon hour when four city councilmen were guests and speakers to the club meeting in the afternoon, when the acting chairman of civics stated that on behalf of the club her committee has written regents of the University of California urging the location of the southern branch at Burbank.

Harry MacBain, S. A. Davis, S. S. Gilhuly and C. E. Kimlin were the councilmen present at luncheon. Mr. MacBain representing Mayor Spencer Robinson, who was unable to be present, gave formal greetings. Mr. Davis urged the club to give time to the study of city affairs. He told of the progress of work on the city sewer and declared that the council was proud in anticipating that when the sewer is completed there will be $100,000 of the sewer bonds unsold. Mr. Gilhuly and Mr. Kimlin congratulated the club in its hearty co-operation in civic affairs.

Urges Playgrounds
The councilmen and other guests were most generous in their compliments to the club women on the clubhouse and accomplishments of the club. George Braden, western representative of the National Playground and Recreation association, unservedly declared the clubhouse to be the finest woman's club he has seen in over 70 cities he has just visited.

"I have seen nothing as satisfying as this," he said. "I believe you have a creation here that the entire city should be proud of."

Play is Mr. Braden's business, and yesterday when he was introduced by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, acting chairman of civics, he made an eloquent plea for development of "the great open spaces" for healthful recreation for the masses. He complimented Glendale on its movements to develop community art for all the people. In his discussion of recreation he concluded with the words: "Now is the time for Glendale to make adequate provision for community recreation centers." Before presenting Mr. Braden Mrs. Hutchinson presented as representatives

ADVICE CHEAP IN LAND OF MOVIES

Become Director and See World Is Latest Bit Of Filmland Talk

By MARIAN MARSHALL
For Southland News Service.
HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 11.—Next to sunshine advice is the cheapest thing in Hollywood! Yes, indeed, what you are not told, what is not known, what is not written on any subject, it seems, is minus plus. For instance, Alan Crossland is out with the statement:

"Become a director and see the world." But, the answer comes, one meets the world in Hollywood right bang up on the boulevards, in the studios, at the hotels and in the homes. No need tramping about for mere companionship of foreigners, unless it is Haig and Haig you wish to see. Frank Lloyd had to appeal to his property man recently to duplicate several hundred imitation cases and keys labelled "Whiskey". There wasn't an aged keg or case to be found for a Dawson City, Alaska, scene in "The Winds of Chance."

European Films

Walter J. Israel, Lloyd's costume director, has just returned from a world tour and he has this to say of foreign studios he visited:

"Wages and materials are so low foreign studios can make big pictures cheaply in their own way. Were European methods to be employed in American studios nearly every picture would require a million dollar investment. The Europeans are artistic enough, but operating as they do they could never make enough good pictures a year to satisfy the great demand for entertainment. American pictures will always lead, but American producers must give more thought to the world-wide appeal and not make typically American domestic plays."

Skirts Shorter

So much for Mr. Israel. Now we shall hear from Clara West, costume designer, who speaks of the Parisian mandate this week limiting skirts to four inches below the knee in length:

"Why", Miss West points out, "Hollywood women have been wearing frocks that short, and in the cases of youthful figures, even more abbreviated for some months. As for the much touted return of the waist line to normal it has been ages since I have designed a gown for either of the Talmadge sisters with a hip-length waistline. In the case of mature figures, of course, skirts should be longer and the waist line lower than may be safely worn by maids or youthfully built matrons."

As for the corset, Miss West emphatically believes that no amount of Parisian insistence can restore it to general favor among American women.

Two Glendale Artists Are Speakers At Club

Art lovers of the fine arts department of the Tuesday Afternoon club had in attendance at the club meeting yesterday, John W. Votson, nationally known artist, resident of Glendale, and instructor of the department, and Walter L. Cheever, well-known California artist, also a resident of Glendale. An exhibition by these two artists in the banquet hall was of special interest.

After the hour of instruction by Mr. Cotton and a talk by Mr. Cheever, the department members spent a half hour with the two artists in the banquet hall studying the pictures. Earlier Mr. Cotton presented the subject of "Vibration and Rays of Color." Mr. Cheever spoke on "The Work of an Artist." Tentative plans were made for an evening social affair late in March, with members of the arts and crafts department taking part. Members of the art department are to visit the studios in Los Angeles of Julia Bracken Wendt and Laura Steere, sculptors.

and "Finale" violin solos, "Nocturne, Opus No. 2" (Chopin arranged by Sarasate), "Caprice Basque" (Sarasate); trio, "Ave Maria" (Bach-Gounod), "Autumn Song" and "Finale from Trio in G Minor" (Smetana).

FIRE TRUCK TOO BIG
NEWPORT BEACH, Mar. 11.—Fire Chief A. W. Jackson found the city fire hall too small to hold the new truck and extension ladder just purchased, so he knocked out the end of the building in order that the equipment would be at least partly housed. This was his report to the city board of trustees. He supplemented the report by stating that the city needs a new fire hall, or the old one should be enlarged and repaired. The new truck and ladder are safely housed—but the truck must be backed out when necessary to go to a fire.

NEW FISHING LAW UPHOLD

BALBOA, March 11.—Plans are under way to have District No. 1 which includes the waters of the Pacific off Balboa beach, opened for tidewater fishing for steelhead trout. Bert Stevenson of Balboa has been given the support of the Los Angeles Rod and Gun club in the matter and from an amendment displayed such an amendment is expected to have support of nearly every angler in Southern California.

NEW OIL WELL FLOWS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 11.—Development of the shallow oil zone in this field and a possible jump in production of oil here during the coming year follows the bringing in of the Pacific Petroleum corporation well, Mile No. 10 at 3680 feet. The well came in at 800 barrels of 27-gravity oil. Expulsion quieted down soon after the well began to flow and brought the gravity to 23, it was reported.

LOTS HARD TO FIND

SANTA BARBARA, March 11.—To buy lots in Summerland at tax collectors' public auction was easy enough if the purchasers had the money, but to locate them without the aid of a surveyor proved a difficult task to some of the new owners. Equipped with tape measures, several persons interested in the land made an inspection, navigating ankle deep in wet adobe soil but the task was given up and the owners made arrangements with a surveyor to definitely locate their property.

SHEEP KEEP GRASS TRIMMED

SANTA MARIA, March 11.—Grass is growing so fast on the golf links of the San Luis Obispo country club that a call has been received here for some sheep. The directors assert that several hundred sheep can be pastured on the links, saving the cost of mowing. Rainfall has been so heavy in this county that the grass grows faster now than mowers can control it. At the same time it is said that golfers in the vicinity are so proficient that none of them tear up any turf and few of them are so careless as to clump the top of the grass off.

SENATORS DELAY WORLD COURT ACT

Irreconcilables Keep Solons From Giving Proposal Any Consideration

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Irreconcilables yesterday afternoon kept the Senate from taking up the proposal for American entrance into the world court. Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia, asked that the court protocol be taken up after the Warren nomination is disposed of. Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, objected on the ground that the Harding-Coolidge world court proposal was before the Senate foreign relations committee and that it could not be taken up until the committee was discharged from its consideration. Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, who was in the chair, sustained Reed's objection. Harris then moved to discharge the foreign relations committee from consideration of the world court. Under the rules this motion cannot be voted upon until tomorrow.

Medical Women Are Guests At Luncheon

Medical women from all parts of Los Angeles county, members of the Women's Medical society of Los Angeles county, came to Glendale today to attend a luncheon at the Harrower Laboratories on East Broadway. They were guests of Dr. Henry R. Harrower's staff. After luncheon they visited Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. Late this afternoon they are guests at the home of Dr. Margaret M. York, 1105 North Central avenue. Dr. York is president of the Women's Medical society of the state.

SPARR HEIGHTS SCHOOL IS SOUGHT

Committee Appears Before Board of Education With Request

A committee headed by M. Walters called on the Board of Education last night with the request that space be rented next fall in some centrally located building at Sparr Heights, for the purpose of conducting a school for the children of this rapidly growing district. The board voted to take the matter under advisement. The meeting was held at the offices of the board, 107 1/2 South Brand boulevard. Mrs. A. A. Barton, president, presiding. All the members were present. Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, and John D. Cate, business manager, also attended the meeting.

Mr. Cate was authorized to ask bids for supplies for the coming school year. Authority was granted for children of the two intermediates and ten elementary schools to compete in the forthcoming Elsteddoff contests. The monthly report of Miss Helen Tupper, school nurse, showed that there is no epidemic of any kind among the school children of Glendale.

Classes at Night

Mr. White reported that the night school classes now being conducted in two city schools are a success. At the Magnolia school seventy-three enrollments have been recorded and at the Grand View school twelve enrollments have been recorded. The classes meet Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

A letter of appreciation for work in the recent bond campaign was authorized to be sent Mrs. O. H. Spradling, president of the Federal Parent-Teacher association. A letter from the Great Northwest Improvement association, thanking the board for the use of the Grand View school as a meeting place, was read by Mr. White.

KAPLAN TO FIGHT

OAKLAND, March 11.—Kid Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., featherweight king, and Johnny Farr, Pacific coast contender, were scheduled to box a twelve-round, no-decision bout here tonight.

New Picture

Scene from "THE HOUSE OF YOUTH," which opens at the Glendale Theatre today.

Love is the underlying theme of "The House of Youth," starring Jacqueline Logan, which opens today at the Glendale Theatre. Love of life, love of excitement, jazz, folly—and greatest of all, true love.

Ralph Ince, the director of the picture, was assigned space on one of the three giant studio stages to film the interior scenes, and in the early part of the picture, he constructed the interior of the roadhouse where, around the bar, much of the gripping action takes place.

This scene was used for the unbridled party given by "Spike" Blaine, (Malcolm MacGregor), and Mitch Hardy (Richard Travers) for some score of their youthful friends, including Corinna Endicott (Jacqueline Logan), the heroine of the story, and Rhodes Winston, (Vernon Steele). As the smashing aftermath of the party there was the terrific struggle between Corinna and Hardy, and the police raid.

Adventist Officials To Attend Conference

Elder J. L. McElhany, president of the Pacific Union conference of the Seventh-Day Adventist denomination, and B. M. Emerson, secretary-treasurer, left last night for St. Helena, to attend the constituency meeting of the sanitarium there. They will return the latter part of the week.

UTILITIES TO COME UP AT LUNCHEON

Greater Glendale Club Will Discuss Public Service At Meet Tomorrow

Public utilities of Glendale will be discussed at the weekly meeting of the Greater Glendale Luncheon club tomorrow noon, at the Masonic temple. The meeting will be under the auspices of the public service corporations committee of the Chamber of Commerce, with W. B. Kelly, chairman of that committee, presiding. A feature of the meeting will be a ten-minute moving picture, showing foreign consuls on their tour of inspection of industrial plants of the San Fernando valley. This film was to have been shown last week, but lack of time prevented.

Tour of Line

Following the luncheon, directors of the Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by members of the public service corporations committee, and delegations from the Glendale Advancement association and the Montrose Chamber of Commerce, will board a train of the Glendale & Montrose railway and ride over that line to Los Angeles. The purpose of this trip will be to demonstrate the quick and efficient service possible over the Glendale avenue line in the event a revised schedule from Glendale Park into Los Angeles can be arranged with the Los Angeles Railway Co.

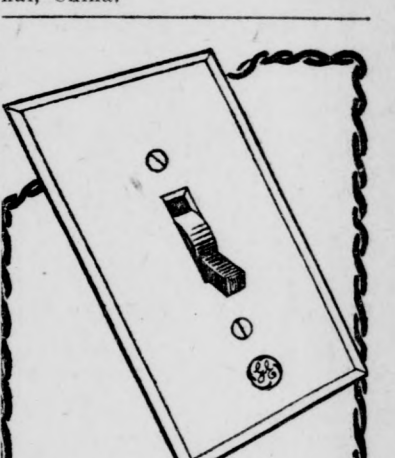

Mrs. S. S. Gilhuly Is Back From Ocean Trip

Mrs. S. S. Gilhuly of 342 E. Bond avenue, returned Saturday from a five-weeks' trip to the Hawaiian Islands. The trip was made with Mrs. Fred Woods, of Chicago, and Mrs. Richard McKay, of San Francisco, college chums of Mrs. Gilhuly. While on the islands they were registered at the Moana hotel at Waikiki. The party visited the volcano at the island of Hawaii and also made a trip to the island of Maui. Mr. Woods met Mrs. Woods in San Francisco and after a visit there they will come to Glendale and be guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilhuly for two weeks.

Benefit Card Party Held By Sisterhood

The benefit card party given by the Jewish Sisterhood of Glendale last night at the home of Mrs. Harry Tobias at 1714 Ard Even avenue was attended by 200 persons from Glendale and other cities. The affair was such a success financially and socially that plans are being made for a series of card parties to be held in the near future. The party was given as a benefit for the religious school. Tables were arranged for bridge and mah jong, prizes being awarded to Mrs. E. W. Kinney, Mrs. I. Weinberg, Mrs. Hossman, Mrs. I. Grossman, Mrs. Harry Tobias, Mrs. Pollister and Mrs. Brodkey. The prizes were donated by Glendale merchants. Later in the evening the card tables were removed and dancing enjoyed. Refreshments of home made cake and punch were served. Announcement was made of the purim party which will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall, 201 West Broadway when Rabbi Winkler will be present.

"Yes," meditated Graham, "I can see him reading over the dead man's shoulder and realizing that there was a chance to throw the police off his trail. So he draws the paper out from under the dead man's hand, tears off just enough to leave a nice easy clue, scorches it realistically, slips it down where a clever detective, like Flint, here, is sure to find it, and burns the rest. Then he goes after the swag—that is what they call it, isn't it, inspector?"

"Kindly leaving Mrs. Hurst's diamond necklace behind," smiled Flint. "Thieves are not usually so considerate."

"Perhaps the case was in some lower drawer and he overlooked it," countered Graham, "or possibly he was interrupted; possibly he heard Mrs. Hurst coming down the hall. In that case his best way out would be through the room beyond—Mr. Hurst's bedroom. If he goes that way he avoids Mrs. Hurst who testified that she entered by the little office, the door into the library being shut."

"Ingenious," allowed Breitman, "but where are your proofs? You haven't a fact to build on."

"That's true," confessed Graham, "but, neither have you. It's pretty foolish of me to make suggestions to men like you and Flint; but still, it could have happened that way, couldn't it?"

"It could," admitted Breitman, "but I guess it didn't."

"If it should transpire that something had been stolen from the safe, that would bolster up my theory a bit, wouldn't it?"

It is difficult to divine Graham's reason for asking such a question, unless it was that in the back of his mind there lurked an unformulated idea of looting the safe himself and so manufacturing evidence.

"It might," conceded Breitman cautiously, "but who is going to know what was in the safe?"

"Mr. Hurst's stenographer, Miss Gwendolyn Smith, might tell us that," suggested Dr. Jordan. "And, I myself, know of something of great value that is kept there—Mr. Hurst's priceless collection of antique rings, historic, most of them, and ugly, I think, but he and some other enthusiasts seem to have fought for them like wild dogs for a bone. Funny, isn't it, to what lengths a man will go for a fad? Hurst has told me some things you would hardly believe about his struggles to get possession of some of those rings."

Breitman stroked his chin thoughtfully. "Does Miss Smith live in the house?" he asked.

"No. She boards somewhere and comes in every morning," the doctor answered.

Breitman drew out the Testimonial again. "Too late to call her up tonight—most midnight," he said. "It's time Miss Hurst was back. You are a friend, doctor, suppose you call up Mrs. Preston. I understand that is where she is dining, and get her home."

"But she didn't dine there," exclaimed Dr. Jordan. "That is what I dropped in to see about; I was afraid she was ill. I was dining there myself. We waited for her till the dinner was nearly spoiled. The terrible happening here put everything else out of my head or I should have spoken of it before."

Inspector Breitman consulted his notebook. "The maid said she left the house in time for dinner at seven," he mused. He crossed the room and rang the bell.

"THE T. D. & L. 'Contraband' opens today at the T. D. & L. Theatre, featuring Lois Wilson and Noah Beery.

"There is a telephone connection with the garage, I suppose," he said when Denis appeared in answer.

"Then call up the chauffeur and ask him where he took Miss Hurst when she left the house this evening."

"Donaldson didn't take her, sir. Miss Estelle told me he had sent her word that the car was out of order. 'Twas a taxi I called for her."

"Did you see her into the car?" "I did, sir."

"Where did you tell the man to take her?"

"To Mrs. Preston's in Fifty-seventh street, sir."

"What time was it?"

"About a quarter to seven, sir."

"She hasn't come home, has she?"

"She has not, sir, and it's worried me. The old man's hands were trembling visibly. 'She's always early home from a little dinner at Mrs. Preston's. You don't think as anything can have happened to her, sir?'"

"Not likely. Did you take the number of the taxi?"

"I did not—I—I—" Denis wrung his hands.

"Did you notice the driver?"

"I did not, sir," wailed the old man. "Twas in a terrible hurry Miss Estelle was. Down the steps she runs and into the car, and 'Hurry, hurry, I'll be late,' she says. So I closes the door and calls out the number."

THE GLENDALE
All parents think their children are different. Do they know they are? This question is answered in "The House of Youth," which opens today at the Glendale Theatre, a Ralph Ince production featuring Jacqueline Logan. The play is based on the well-known novel by Maude Radford Warren.

This picture, which shows the follies and triumphs of the young people to whom is given the heritage of the earth, stars Miss Logan in the role of a daring flapper, who passes through the fire of a great crisis and emerges a woman gloriously fit to carry on the battle of life.

In addition, Dora Duffy Devine, late soloist of the Boston Opera guild, will be seen today and Thursday at the Glendale theatre, together with a novelty act, "A Day at the Circus," featuring Elinor and Esther.

Thursday night there will be a preview, "Up the Ladder," featuring Virginia Valli, supported by a cast including Forrest Stanley, George Fawcett, Priscilla Moran and Margaret Livingston. Announces Manager William K. Howe of the Glendale theatre.

DOBINSON PLAYERS
Joseph McManus, who, as the hero, plays opposite Miss Alpaugh in "Barnum Was Right," at the Glendale Playhouse this week, has a namesake who is almost a double.

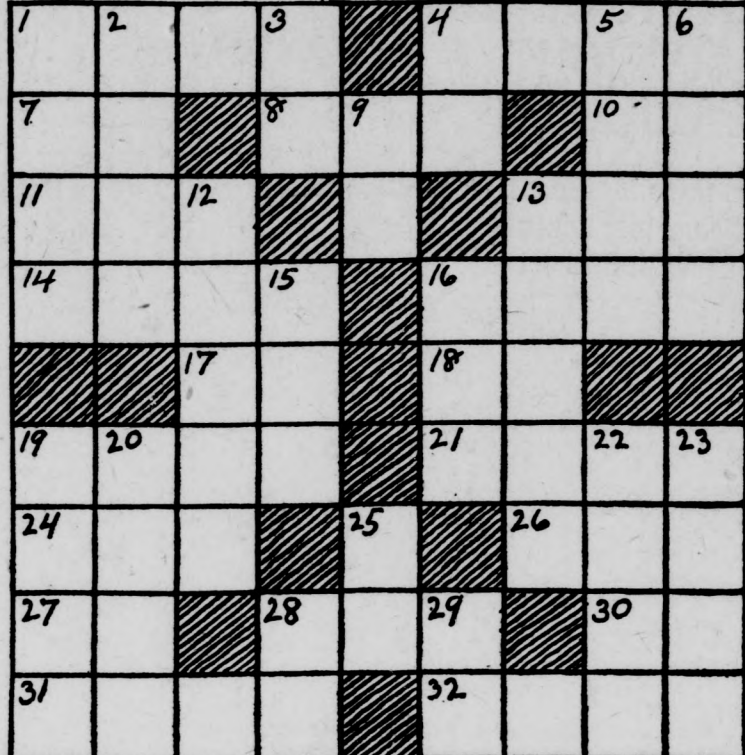

The second Joe McManus is a song writer living in Santa Barbara. The two men, who are much alike in general appearance, met in New York a few years ago when the Glendale Joe was playing on Broadway, and the Santa Barbara Joe was receiving acclaim as the author of the lyrics of a successful musical show.

Each was always being mistaken for the other.

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS WORD PUZZLE

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram. Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown on the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterrupted. Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the white squares remain uninterrupted.

UNCLE WIGGILY'S PAPER OF PINS

"Are you almost ready, Nurse Jane?" called Uncle Wiggily from the bath room, where he was shaving and getting himself up to look stylish, so he could take his muskrat lady housekeeper to the moving pictures.

"Oh, I'm afraid I can't go!" squeaked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"Why not?" asked the bunny gentleman, and he was so surprised that he almost cut his pink, twinkling nose.

"I can't get ready in time," was Nurse Jane's reply. "A lot of buttons just came off my rose silk blue dress, and I haven't time to sew them on."

"Use pins!" advised Uncle Wiggily with a laugh. "That's what I do when I lose my buttons."

"But I have no pins!" sighed the muskrat lady. "There isn't a pin in the bungalow. Mrs. Twisty-tail, the lady pig, is making a new bed quilt to wear to Aunt Lettie's party, and she sent over yesterday and borrowed every pin in the place. I haven't one."

"Then I'll hop to the 3 and 4-cent store and buy a paper of pins," said Uncle Wiggily, kindly. "I'll be back in time for you to get ready to go to the movies. The March wind is blowing very hard, and it will almost blow me to the store."

"Yes, but you will have hard work coming back against the wind," said Nurse Jane.

"Perhaps the wind may turn and blow the other way when I am coming back with the paper of pins," spoke the bunny. "I think it will."

Quickly he finished shaving and then he started to hop to the store to get the paper of pins. As he had said, the wind was blowing very strong, and it really helped him on his way. For he needed but to take one hop when the wind would blow him two hops farther.

"I'm going along like a sail-boat!" cried the bunny, and, almost before he knew it, he was at the store. He picked up the paper of pins and hopped back to the bungalow to fasten Nurse Jane's dress.

So they got to the movies just in time and say a jolly show. And if the lollypop doesn't try to stand on its head and fall off the stick, next you shall hear about Uncle Wiggily's snow flowers.

'TEA POT' THRILL
FEDERAL COURT HOUSE, CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 11.—Eastern attorneys here for the Teapot Dome hearing shuddered yesterday when they awoke to find a blanket of snow covering Cheyenne. Their enthusiasm for the "open spaces" was further cooled when they heard thrilling accounts from local inhabitants of a storm fifty years ago this week that lasted three days.

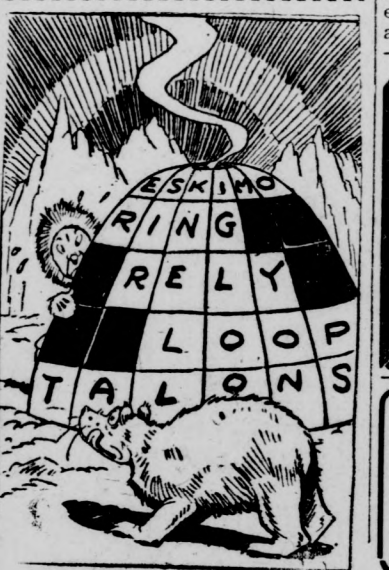

'RED GABLES' RULE
SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., March 11.—Indications here today were that for the next four years the executive branch of the government will be directed from the White House in autumn, winter and spring, but from the "red house" in summer, as the president will vacation at Frank W. Stearns' "Red Gables" home.

'HIT, RUN' PENALTY
PORTLAND, Ore., March 11.—Lucien Latourrelle, hit-and-run motorist, was sentenced to a year in the county jail here today by Municipal Judge Ekwil. It was said to be the heaviest sentence ever imposed in Oregon for such an offense.

Diet And Health

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Excess Weight and Sore Toes
"Dear Doctor: I weigh 230 pounds. You see I really have to reduce. Please send me your reducing instruction, for which I am enclosing ten cents in stamps and a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope."

"My toe has been feeling so stiff lately, just as though I had dropped something on it. What is the cause of this?—Mrs. B."

You are so very much overweight, Mrs. B., that you should be under the personal care of a physician. You must have a thorough examination including urine and blood analyses. I am not in private practice else I'd like to take you myself. It is a great joy to watch the liberation of a person from an imprisonment such as yours.

As for your stiff toe, it looks as though the circulation were cut off in some way. I hope you haven't diabetes. It is so often associated with excess weight that there is a possibility you have. See your physician at once, please.

WARTS:

Miss D.—Warts seem to be of a slightly infectious nature. We know that they will spread from one part of the hand to another. There are many things that will remove them. You might try some of the following home remedies:

After thoroughly scrubbing the hands two or three times a day, rub baking soda on them; or try this: It will remove them in some cases: Take a large sized potato and cut off a fresh slice each time you use it and rub it on the warts. (The potassium salts of the potato do the work.) Sometimes painting with iodine, once a day, is effective.

If home remedies do not rout them, you should go to a skin specialist. After adult age is reached, warts in a position on the body to be irritated, should be removed for they are possible sources of cancer.

Red Noses

Mrs. A. M.—For some reason the nose seems to be one of the favorite camping grounds for pimples and boils and it also seems to be a seat for reflex disturbances from the stomach. The fiery nose doesn't always mean alcoholism. Occasionally excess tea and coffee and other dietary indiscretions will show themselves in the nose.

How about your general health? Is it up to par? Are you getting your vitamins? Are you an excessive eater of sweets and oils? Look to your diet and increase your physical exercises.

For local treatment, try putting a wet boric acid compress on your nose and leave it on overnight. You can strap it on with narrow bands of adhesive. Have a thorough examination to see how you stand physically.

Mrs. G.—You will find our articles on constipation and balanced diet of great help. Send for these, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Vitamins
Mrs. A.—The shorter time you cook your vegetables the more vitamins are preserved. Vegetables needn't be mushy to be palatable. It is better for the teeth to have them firm. Yes, tomatoes are high in V's raw or cooked. Cabbage, for V's is better raw.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents

My Dear Followers:—When sending me letters, please enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest, I will send you the information I have offered.

The person who has never given a St. Patrick's Day Party has missed much in life. As the games make the party, I shall not waste much space on the subject of refreshments or decorations. We all know how to decorate—with harps, Irish flags, green and yellow crepe paper streamers, and all the other made decorations which shops sell. And any green refreshments are suitable—green pepper and cream cheese salad sandwiches filled with chopped olives and chopped hard-cooked eggs mixed with Mayonnaise; cakes iced with green icing (a little cooked spinach will provide the coloring matter); quick biscuits in the shape of pigs, coffee, and pistachio ice cream.

Blowing Bubbles at the Shamrock: Paint a large white cardboard shamrock with green watercolor paints and suspend it from the ceiling. Give each guest a clay pipe. Have a bowl of soapy water handy. The guest who can blow the greatest number of bubbles, waiting each with his breath, so that it hits the shamrock from a distance of three feet wins a prize.

Synonyms: Write a number of Irish words on as many cards as there are guests and distribute them with pencils. The guest who can write the best synonyms for these words in three minutes wins. You will find it pretty difficult to find English equivalents for "Maymournen," "gosssoon," etcetera.

Shamrock Hunt: Cut tiny shamrocks from green paper and hide these all about a room. Start the guests hunting them. He who finds the most in five minutes wins.

Potato Paring Contest: Provide everybody with a potato and a knife. At a given signal all begin to pare. He who does it best in the shortest length of time wins. Next, have a contest to see who can carve the best human face from his pared potato; a tiny plaster figure might be the prize from this "sculpture" contest.

Irish Stories Contest: Ask each guest to tell the best "Pat" story he knows. Indeed you might mention in the invitation that everybody will be called upon to tell such a story, so that the company may come prepared.

Tomorrow: Infant's Knitted Sweater

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

FOR AWKWARDNESS

About half the boys and girls between 14 and 18 years go through a period of shyness which, while it lasts, is an unhappy experience. Sometimes it lasts a long time, and has devastating effects upon their after lives; this brings me to various psychological problems which I cannot talk about today. I only want to talk about ordinary awkwardness that goes with growing up, the "pinfather" stage, as someone has called it.

I suppose I should address such a talk to mothers and fathers, for I believe they are responsible for this stage of social awkwardness. For if a boy goes out among his friends feeling sure of his manners, his personality and social education, he'll not be ill at ease nor hesitate about making new friends. Nor will a girl. These things do not depend upon money, nor entirely upon school education, but on the contact with his parents and the sort of social life in his own home, which must be the first school.

But the grown boys and girls who are thrown on their own must work out their own solution. I think clothes count with girls, and that fans or pretty handbags to carry powder and handkerchief in with an evening dress, save many a girl from acute discomfort, because they give her something to play with, something to do with her hands. After all, a boy can stuff his hands in his pockets, even if it isn't always the best of manners.

That "what shall I do with my hands?" is the great plea, it is the greatest form of self-consciousness. Give the hands something to do and they are forgotten, as they should be. Make them pretty and they are something one is pleasantly conscious of, and an asset. A pretty dress will overcome a great deal of awkwardness with a girl; I suspect a well-fitting suit will do as much for the awkward young man.

DYNAMITERS WIN HARD TRACK MEET

Locals Win Half-Mile Relay
To Cop High Points
From Pasadena

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.
In the most exciting track meet this season Coach Hayhurst's Glendale Dynamiters nosed out the Pasadena Bulldogs in a dual meet yesterday on Broadway field, 60 1-3 points to 52 2-3 points. The two teams were within a few points of each other throughout the whole meet.

Although Glendale led most of the time the Bulldogs were always close behind and at one time, after Glendale came out with only three points in the 220 yards, the lead by a bare third of a digit. As the darkness fell the Dynamiters were three points ahead. In the deciding event, the half-mile relay, the Red and Black crew walked away from the Bulldogs and clinched the meet.

Parker started "for" Glendale and after passing his opponent on the turn saved a second in a nice exchange of the stick to Maydwell who tore around and handed it to Russ Slocum who even increased the distance. On the home stretch "Daily Dozen" Purdy streaked in a good forty yards ahead of the flying Bulldog who vainly tried to make up for lost time.

Loss Field Events

In the field events the Dynamiters were left in the soup, coming in for only one first, that in the high jump. In the dashes Glendale took every event except the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard run. In the mile Montgomery tripped home in five minutes. As he had little competition the Glendale bean-pole did not have to extend himself to keep far in the lead. Freddie Guerdard showed up well in the high jump, winning with a leap of five feet and six inches. "Seedy" Maydwell came out high point man of the meet by clinching first in the 440 and the 880. Ellsworth de Parco was a close second with nine markers, made in the 220 low hurdles, the broad jump, and the shot put. "Daily Dozen" Purdy was cheated out from tying with Maydwell with ten points when Caines of Pasadena beat him out in the 220. Purdy ranked third in the point list with eight. Stocks of Pasadena was tied for third with eight, while Caines followed with six.

The summary:
100-yard dash—Purdy (G.) first; Slocum (G.) second; Caines (P.) third. Time 16 2-5 sec.
220-yard dash—Caines (P.) first; Purdy (G.) second; Maydwell (G.) third. Time 23 1-5 sec.
440-yard dash—Maydwell (G.) first; Dinmore (G.) second; Ashier (P.) third. Time 52 sec. flat.
880-yard dash—Maydwell (G.) first; Peterson (G.) second; Ciliax (P.) third. Time 2 min. 5 2-5 sec.
1 mile run—Montgomery (G.) first; Patton (P.) second; Sturgess (G.) third. Time 5 min. flat.
120-yard high hurdles—Welch (G.) first; Rossington (G.) second; Griffin (P.) third. Time 16 sec. flat.
220-yard high hurdles—de Parco (G.) first; Hall (P.) second; Wheeler (P.) third. Time 27 2-5 sec.
Pole vault—Miller (P.) first; Elliott (G.) second; Murphy (G.) third. Height 11 feet, 3 inches.
High jump—Guerdard (G.) first; Hollister (P.) and Larson (P.) tied for second. Height 5 ft. 10 in.
Broad jump—Stocks (P.) first; de Parco (G.) second; Elliott (G.) third. Distance 20 ft. 1 1/2 in.
Shot put—Schliemer (P.) first; Squires (G.) second; de Parco (G.) third. Distance 24 ft. 6 in.
Half mile relay—Won by Glendale team: Parker, Maydwell, Slocum and Purdy. Time 4 min. 7-10 sec.
Total—Glendale 60 1-3 points; Pasadena 52 2-3 points.
The high point men on each side: Glendale: Maydwell, 10; de Parco, 8; Purdy, 8; Pasadena: Stocks, 8; Caines, 6; Welch, 5; Miller, 5; Baston, 5; Schliemer, 5.

JOHN B. FOSTER'S VIEWS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925
AVALON, CATALINA ISLAND, Calif., March 11.—Have the Cubs of 1925 a punch? Every year that same problem comes up. The team seems to start off well and makes a corking early showing. But in past years, when the test came and men were called upon to show whether they were made of flint or putty, the Cubs have been in the habit of sagging off. They ultimately have followed this up by hanging on to the finish, fighting hard, but never showing enough punch to carry them through to a pennant.

Almost always this has been due to the lack of heavy artillery with which to knock down the pitching fortifications. Had the Cubs possessed one good clean-up hitter, who could assure them of one or two more runs per game they would not have finished so far down the rack.

Batting was so evidently what they needed, that the Cub scouts were told to round up every potential fence buster they could find. The scouts have not had a lot of success along that line in past years and it is a question whether the needed wallop is with the team this year.

If a fact, it is pretty certain that no one slugger has been uncovered. However, if the combination of Grimm and Maranville should bring to the Cubs as much batting as it is conceivable they might bring, the team will be helped wonderfully. Both will field fast enough, and both have shown in the past that they can bat. Maranville, perhaps is the greatest problem of the two. He can play about as well as he ever did if he tried, but the Rabbit is occasionally too flighty for his own good. Still, he is as hard as nails this spring, and is bubbling over with determination to make a good record.

Bill Killefer, the Cub manager, expressed himself to the writer as well satisfied with the team's prospects of having a punch. He thinks so highly of Maranville and Grimm that he feels he might have won a pennant last season with them in his lineup. Of course last season is water over the dam but it's about the only thing by which a manager can figure the future.

If it is to be considered that the Cubs have a punch, it must be looked upon as a combination punch made up of two players taken over from Pittsburgh. The Cubs figure that the Cooper end of the deal was all their way and they are counting on getting at least fifteen victories out of his south wing. Maybe that, too, is a part of the punch.

But if the Cubs had a real 400 hitting player on the team, there would be fewer ifs and buts. They would be almost sure to land among the first three.

One thing is certain—with Hartnett behind the bat, they have five arms of steel on the infield. Although they have been here only a week, Grimm, Adams, Maranville, Friberg and Hartnett are throwing the ball as if they had been playing half a season. Hartnett's throwing to second is the marvel of the other players. He lines the ball over after another, never higher than a man's head at the highest point of their trajectory. Maranville says he never caught such hot shots in his career on the infield. And the three basemen and the shortstop promise to make things pretty hot for base runners too.

MILKMEN MOVE TO SECOND PLACE

Defeat Radios 27 to 16 In Thrilling Game Last Night At Gym

By A. S. HALL
Of The Evening News Staff.
The second place in the Glendale Merchants' Basketball league changed hands last night at the Harvard High school gym, when the Calla Lily aggregation pulled away from the Radios in the final period of an exciting game, and won, 27 to 16. It was a game hard fought all the way, marked by spectacular shooting and improved teamwork. The outcome puts the milkmen in second place and the Radios in third position.

Talbert, forward for the milkmen, was high point man last night, although the Radios concentrated their defense attack upon him. He was shooting them from all angles, from the center of the court, corners and sidelines. He found the hoop seven times, closely guarded as he was. Neel, formerly captain of the Dynamite lightweight team, and now center for the Radios, led the losers in scoring, getting eight points. Several of Neel's shots were spectacular, and three of his four baskets were made in the first half, after which the milkmen guarded him closely. The detailed story of the game follows:

First Quarter
The Radios took the west basket and the milkmen the east basket for the first half. The milkmen got the first tipoff and the ball passed back and forth one minute before Neel caged his first basket from under the hoop. Talbert had a chance to tie the count when he got two free throws on McKowan's foul, holding, but missed both. Hyatt started the scoring for the milkmen and tied the count, 2-2, when he shot one from the center ring. Neel got his second basket from midcourt, putting the Radios ahead, 4-2. Talbert evened up matters with a spectacular shot from the south side, and Shingledecker put the milkmen in the lead, 6-4 with a shot from midfloor near the sidelines. McKowan made it 6 all from under the basket and a moment later put his team in the lead, 8-6, with another basket. Neel missed the free throw on Talbert's holding as the quarter ended; Radios 8; Calla Lily, 6.

Second Quarter
McAllister strengthened the Radios' lead early in the second quarter by shooting from the center of the court. Talbert cut down the lead and then tied the score, 10-10, with two baskets in quick succession, the second one being from the side center. Neel put the Radios ahead with a basket from the four line on a throw-in, but Talbert pulled another sensational shot from the center ring to make it 12-12. With less than two minutes to go to the half mark, both teams fought hard to get into the lead. Talbert made the grade, this time a long shot from the sidelines, and just before the half ended, Shingledecker tossed one from in under, the score at half time being: Calla Lily, 16; Radios, 12.

Third Quarter
The third stanza was marked by low points and hard fighting, although there were only two fouls called during the period. Shingledecker got the first basket for the milkmen soon after the quarter opened, making the count 18-12. He charged through on the tipoff and shot from near the center ring. Near the middle of the quarter Neel got his last basket, a shot that brought the spectators to their feet. It was made from near the center of the court as he was off the floor about three feet. McKowan got his last point on a free throw when a foul was called on Hyatt for pushing. He missed the second throw. Just before the quarter ended Worthman got a free throw on Avery's foul, holding, but missed. The quarter ended: Calla Lily 18; Radios 15.

Fourth Quarter
Three minutes, filled with fighting, long passing and chance-taking shots, elapsed before a point was made in the final session. Neel was called for pushing, and Hyatt made the throw. The milkmen swept the Radios off their feet by clever teamwork, as the ball was worked down the court.

LAWRENCE PERRY SAYS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925
NEW YORK, March 11.—At this stage of the basketball season in the east and middle west champions have already been decided. By defeating Columbia on Saturday, Princeton solidified her claim to the eastern championship while in the middle west, Ohio state, by beating the supposedly invincible Indiana quintet, assured herself of the first title the Buckeyes have ever won.

That game must have been a hair-raiser; contests that end 28 to 26 are conducive to the furtherance of development of cardiac maladies. Tradition is a strange element in sport—the Buckeyes have not lost a big ten game at home in two seasons. Wisconsin should prove easy for Ohio next Saturday night, but even should form be reversed and the Badgers win, the Scarlet and Gray cannot be ousted from their well-won throne.

Saturday's games saw a great Hoosier downfall. Indiana, by beating Ohio—and, also, provided Wisconsin were to beat the Buckeyes—could have tied the Columbus team for the title.

And Purdue by beating Illinois last Saturday night and winning against Wisconsin next Wednesday and furthermore playing and winning a postponed game against Michigan, had a chance to tie for the championship. But Illinois beat the bollermakers Saturday night and so Purdue's hopes have gone glimmering.

Wisearces were inclined to concede the Ohio-Indiana game to the Hoosiers. Not only was the contest to be played at Bloomington, but their 51 to 53 victory over Michigan a week ago indicated that the team had attained unbeatable form.

Until Ohio clinched the championship she shared with Northwestern and Indiana the doubtful honor of being the only conference college that had neither won, nor tied for Big Ten basketball title.

It is a pity that a quintet which has played so finely together as that of Ohio should have to be broken up, but the fact remains that a commencement three of the five, vice, Miner one of the best forwards ever produced in the Big Ten. Captain Cameron and Shaw will receive their diplomas.

To Talbert, who made a goal from under the basket, 21-15. Worthman made the final point for the Radios and the only marker in the fourth period, on a free throw, Randall holding, after he had missed the first shot McKowan missed a free throw, Talbert pushing. Avery boosted the score up to 23-16 by shooting from under the basket, and a moment later did the same thing to make the count 25-16. Talbert pulled his most spectacular shot of the game near the end of the final quarter when he tossed the ball over his shoulder from the side line, the casaba going true to its mark. The ball was in the milkmen's zone after being pushed up and down the court, when the game ended: Calla Lily 27; Radios 16.

The lineups:
CALLA LILY (27) RADIOS (16)
Shingledecker (6) R.F. McKowan (3) Talbert (24) L.F. McKowan (3) Avery (4) Neel (8) Randall (4) R.G. Schenck (3) Hyatt (3) L.G. McAllister (2) Substitution: Worthman (1) for Soth.

Score By Quarters

Calla Lily 1 2 3 4 T
Radios 6 10 2 9-27
8 4 3 1-16

Among the unsung heroes of last night's game were the two guards on both teams. Randall and Hyatt for the milkmen, were largely responsible for the low score the Radios made, both breaking up play after play in the Radios' zone. Schenck and McAllister did efficient work for the Radios, centering their attention mostly on Talbert on Shingledecker. Keeping them worried most of the time.

These two teams played the only extra-period game staged in the league, when the Radios won 29 to 27 on January 27. The Radios lost to the Hull Trucks, 32 to 28, on February 10, a game that was in doubt until the final whistle. The milkmen also lost to the truckmen, 28 to 25, and the lead switched back and forth.

Tonight's game will be between the Hull Trucks and the Christian

SISLER IS GOING STRONG WITH BAT

Indications Point To High
Average For Veteran
Player This Year

By DAVID J. WALSH
For International News Service.
TAMPA, Fla., March 11.—Every indication pointed today to an inevitable reinstatement of George Sisler, greatest hitter in baseball three years ago, to the rank of the first batters in the American league during the impending season. Sisler, a victim of defective sight at this time last year, is smiting any and all kinds of pitching here with abandon and the business end of a baseball bat, and the lynx-eyed observers have declared him the Sisler of old.

The gentleman himself says he is facing the pitcher with more confidence than at any time since 1922, when he compiled the rather natty average of .420 over a full season of play, the high water mark of modern baseball. He thinks he is due to come-back like a bad check, and to date not a disenter has voiced a contrary vote.

For one thing, Sisler is taking his full, clean swing at the ball, where in 1924 he was chopping and pushing his hits, if any. Low, ringing drives are shooting through the infield and his shoulders are snapping into the smash in a way that is calculated to show self confidence, such as Cobb, Speaker, Sisler himself and in fact only the great hitters have possessed.

Making No Claims
Deep down under his skin, Sisler seems to know that he is back where he belongs. But he will make no immediate claims. The story circulated that he had hit .450 or better this season, he characterized today as a joke. Sisler is making no claims whatever. He merely admits that his sight has so far improved this season that they seem to be throwing bigger and better baseballs.

"I feel better than at any time since the 1922 season," he declared. "When I stepped up there for the first time a week ago, I admit that I felt a bit worried as to how the ball would look. I've lost all that now. There is nothing so comforting as the feeling of a solid hit as it rolls off your bat, and I seem to be getting a lot of them down here."

And Feeling Fine
"Of course the pitching in batting practice is not what I will get during the regular season or even the kind I will face in practice games. But neither kind was good enough to fool me consistently when I was right and taking everything into consideration. I feel just as good now as I ever did in my life."

This statement is not exactly calculated to cause consternation in St. Louis. There is a baseball axiom to the extent that as Sisler goes, so goes the Browns. It just about scores a bull's eye from a very different angle.

When Sisler ran amuck in 1922, the Browns were beaten out of the pennant by a scant half game. Sisler then was taken ill, as a result of which he became partly blinded and played no baseball in 1923. Whereupon the Browns did a graceful flop. He returned to the game last season and hit a bare .305. The Browns never were a serious contender.

The churchmen are at the bottom of the league, having lost every one of the seven starts they have made since the league started, while the truckmen are leading the league with six wins and one defeat. The truckmen are picked to win by a safe margin.

Tomorrow night the truckmen will take on the American Legion team. The former service men are in next to cellar position with one win and five defeats, losing all games except the contest with the Christian church. The truckmen are also picked to win tomorrow night's affair handy.

The two wins will give the truckmen a safe hold on top place for the end of the week and put them in a position where any other team will have a hard time heading them next week. Their percentage at the end of the week will mount to .889, provided they win the two games tonight and tomorrow night, as expected.

SPAGHETTI RACE WON BY DE PALMA

Smiling Ralph Wins By One
Fork In Unique Event
At Cane's Station

One and a half pints of spaghetti disappeared down Ralph De Palma's throat in one minute and seventeen seconds in the most unique contest a bunch of race drivers ever entered. The race was staged at Cane's Spaghetti Station No. 1, 1524 East Colorado street, and famous speedway stars were contestants. "Smiling Ralph" was declared the winner. Second place went to Pete de Paola, De Palma's nephew, who finished a forkful behind his uncle. The winner received a bust of Caruso with appropriate booby prizes to the others. A. M. Young, president of the Los Angeles Speedway corporation, was host to the eighteen drivers. Among the speedway stars who found the track slippery at last night's event were Ralph De Palma, Peter De Paola, Harry Hartz, Wade Morton, Pete Kreis, Pietro Bordino, Tommy Milton, Frank Elliott and others.

Boxing NOTES

Ralph Smith, Los Angeles fireman, had a hard time with Bob Roper in the ten round battle at Vernon last night. The experience, although Smith showed a lot of gameness. Smith was knocked down three times in the eighth round. Lew Rollinger and Young George drew in six rounds. Carl Sepulveda gave Joe Somers enough in the fourth round and his seconds hurried in the sponge. Frank Farmer won the nod in four rounds over Kid Williams. Cow-boy Perkins lost the decision to Nick Newman in six rounds.

CLASSY BARGAINS WE
"AUTO SHOW"
YOU THIS WEEK
"THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HOME
A really deluxe bungalow of 7 rooms, beautifully located in Verdugo Woodlands. We will not attempt to give details—suffice to say if you are interested in an $18,000 home you surely must see this. HAVE THEM
"WHEN BETTER BARGAINS ARE OFFERED, WE WILL BE HERE TO HAVE THEM
This is truly a bargain. Owner must leave Glendale. Arise, you interested in a bungalow at $2500,
$1000 cash? Located close in, N. W.
Then call us on this.
SOME OF OUR STUDEBAKER, IN OUR OFFICE THIS WEEK.
Here's a beautiful Verdugo Woodlands. 4 large rooms on each side. Extra bed, breakfast room, double garage, double garage and a wonderfully located big 75x175 lot. What an opportunity for a real home and income.
Priced now at $11,500, $1600 cash.
"DO NOT EXPECT A LONG TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE, ASK ABOUT IT
COME TO BUY THIS"
Close-in, near high school, 5-
room and 4-room bungalow, 2
bathrooms, $5700. Owner wants something for his $2000 equity.
What have you got? The owner might sweeten folks with a little cash to help make a deal, also will assume.
"AUTO SHOW EDITORIAL"
A subject of "General" interest is "Economic transportation". You can't do it without a car. The new proposed low rates on the Pacific
Electric, combined with advantage of a real home and income, going to make this a "Good Year"
for Glendale. Many new people are coming to California, by train and auto. "People who can a-
"Ford" to buy.
Glendale real estate is going up like "Cal" in the "Auto Show".
Like "No Blow-outs" and no
"Four-Wheel Brakes" can hold her ground. The "Auto Show" is running on "Lightning Gas". So when you go to the Auto Show, buy that new car on the payment plan.
We know because we have been selling real estate that way
long before autos ran the horses out of the country and then made the country into the city. We know the ownership and transportation within the reach of all.
If you are even thinking of buying, selling or trading real estate,
we will be glad to give you "A Demonstration".

Davina Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Black of Richardson avenue, another dancer, will also appear on the program.

OBJECT TO PHONE EXCHANGE PLANS

Proposition to Put Station In Verdugo Woodlands Meets Opposition

Opposition to the establishment of a new telephone exchange on the Verdugo Woodlands vicinity that would embrace a portion of north Glendale was voiced by Councilman C. E. Kimlin at the meeting of the Glendale Realty board today noon at the Episcopal church. Councilman Kimlin pointed out that a separate exchange such as is proposed for this section would necessitate a toll charge on all calls made to Glendale.

A situation similar to that which exists in portions of the Grand View district where many phones are on the Burbank exchange would thus be created, he said. The matter was referred to the city committee and action will be taken at the next meeting, it was stated.

Secretary Howard L. Wood of the Chamber of Commerce spoke to the realtors at their meeting today. He said that the aviation meet scheduled for Saturday and Sunday in this city would afford an excellent opportunity to put aeronautics on a business and commercial basis and to make what has been a mere toy a great factor in the commercial life of Southern California. Mr. Wood invited the realtors to join actively in the meet.

Urges Lower Fare
The speaker also told the realtors the opening of the new Pacific Electric tunnel between this city and Los Angeles would enhance the business opportunities of Glendale. Establishment of a ten-cent fare to Los Angeles was urged by the speaker.

Speaking of the Glendale outfall sewer, now under construction, Mr. Wood declared, "Installation of this sewerage system will undoubtedly mean a new era of industrial advancement for Glendale. Mr. Wood also spoke briefly of the $500-acre municipal park recently given by L. C. Brand, urging a campaign of advertising to popularize this unique resort. He announced the next Chamber of Commerce radio program for Saturday night between 8 and 9 o'clock.

A. H. Voelker had charge of the program at the realty luncheon today. Vice-President J. M. Boland presided in the absence of President W. L. Twining.

Scovern, funeral director.

DR. OLIVER K. MAPES
Dr. Oliver K. Mapes of 355 Patterson avenue, died Tuesday morning, March 10, 1925, at the age of 51 years. He had been ill over a year and a half. Dr. Mapes had practiced dentistry in Santa Monica and Los Angeles during the past eighteen years. He was a member of the Elks lodge. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Manay Mapes, a son, Gordon, and a daughter, Olive. Mrs. Mapes is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Ketchum of 128 South Everett street. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Co., 137 North Orange street. Glendale lodge 1289, B. P. O. E. will have charge. Interment will take place in Grand View Memorial park.

ISAAC N. RICHARDS
Funeral services for Isaac N. Richards, who died Monday, will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial park. L. G. Scovern, director.

HENRY A. REIS
Henry A. Reis died Tuesday, March 10, 1925, at 210 East Dryden street at the age of 53 years. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Reis. The deceased was a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., and had lived in Glendale eighteen years. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the L. G. Scovern chapel, South Brand boulevard. Interment will take place in Forest Lawn Memorial park.

BIRTHS

Senators to Decide Upon World Court

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Conferees of both the Republicans and Democrats in the Senate were called for tomorrow to discuss the legislative program for the remainder of the special session.

The world court proposal is to be brought up in both caucuses to determine whether or not action should be taken on it at this time.

NEW YORK CLOSING

By W. S. COUSINS
For International News Service

NEW YORK, March 11.—Wall street developments today centered around a number of prominent rail properties. Early rumors that the bankers of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad would permit the road to go into receivership led to another deluge of selling orders for the stocks and bonds of that road, and prices tumbled to new low records. With the common stock down to 9 1/2, the preferred at 17 1/2 and the 4 per cent bonds of the company at 57, receivership for the road was clearly indicated.

The bankers who have in hand the refunding of the $48,000,000 bonds in June maintained their policy of silence and refused to comment until the report of the engineers has been made public. Eastern Pacific, on which the executive committee recommended payment of $5 in cash and 16 2/3 per cent in stock, was one of the most active of the railroad shares. The common stock jumped 6 points, to 47 1/2, and the preferred was up 3, to 96 1/2.

Activity in Rock Island and St. Louis Southwestern followed the announcement of Charles Hayden, chairman of the Southern California, that the Rock Island interests had acquired control of the Cotton Belt line. Rock Island sold up to 51 and Southwestern gained about 2 points.

Midwest Refining Co. followed other large purchasers of crude oil today in advancing prices of crude oil, marking up Salt Creek crude to $1.00.

Oil stocks were in good demand at slightly higher prices, but there was no sustained movement in stocks in this group and prices rarely reached the level of yesterday's high prices.

The industrial market leaders recovered from the slump in which they were placed by Tuesday's heavy selling, but buying demand was small and transactions were slow.

Another drop in grain prices was a damper on the stock market, as also was the weakness in cotton, which lost about 24 points. Call money renewed at 4 1/2 and declined to 4 per cent later in the day.

Western Pacific's 13-point jump to 51, following announcement of a $5 dividend and 16 2/3 per cent stock dividend, was the feature of the day.

The market, as a whole was not stimulated by the brilliant forward movement of a few stocks, including American Can and Cast Iron Pipe.

Stock sales, 1,776,800 shares; bonds, $14,681,000.

EARNINGS INCREASE

Indicating a healthy improvement in business conditions in Southern California, the January earnings of the Southern California Edison Co. show a substantial increase over January, 1924. The gross earnings in January, 1925, were $1,813,945.66, an increase of $144,902.27 over the same month in 1924, while the total net increase showed an increase of $189,169.76, a 23-per cent advance. Gross earnings showed a 9-per cent increase.

Notwithstanding the subnormal water condition during 1924, this company's sales of electric energy increased 15 per cent over 1923. This year the rainfall and snow in the High Sierras is already in excess of average conditions at this time of the year, which points to a very prosperous year for this electric utility.

The Edison Co. offered for sale on March 15, 1925, $10,000,000 of its 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock, and to date over $8,000,000 of the issue has been sold, chiefly in Southern and Central California.

ROAD IN DISTRESS

NEW YORK, March 11.—Rumors of receivership for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad today filled the speculative district as the securities of the company tumbled to record low prices on the New York stock exchange.

Financial difficulties of the company center about the task of refunding or otherwise taking care of $48,000,000 of 4 per cent bonds which will fall due June 1.

These bonds dropped five points today and sold at 58 1/2, a decline of twenty points from the year's high. The common stock sold at 9 1/2, the lowest in the history of the road, and the preferred stock at 18 1/2, also a record low.

OAKMONT CLUB TO MARK BIRTHDAY

Celebrate First Anniversary
Saturday Night; Plan
Special Program

The first birthday anniversary of Oakmont Country club is to be celebrated Saturday night with a brilliant cabaret dinner party. There will be places for 400. According to the club secretary, there is a great demand for tickets. Mrs. Harold R. Skeath, chairman of the entertainment committee, announces that there will be a program by a chorus of eight pretty girls from the Belcher school, including a premiere danseuse, soprano and contralto leads and many surprise vaudeville numbers. A special stage has been erected along one entire side of the large dining room and lounge, so that the entertainers can be seen and heard perfectly.

Disabled soldiers are embroidering the textiles for a chair which the Queen of Spain will use in her country house near Madrid.

LOS ANGELES

By Southland News Service.
LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Walter Wanderwell and his adopted sister, Aloha Wanderwell, were fined $200 each by Police Judge George P. Bullock, after they had pleaded guilty to wearing parts of the United States army uniform in violation of the national defense act. Their Sam Browne belts, that caused the charge, were confiscated.

More than 4,000,000 people vacationed in the national forests of California during 1924, according to a report issued today by the California district office of the forest service. Los Angeles national forest had 1,000,000 visitors and 720,000 transient tourists.

It will be a penal offense to dig up a street in Los Angeles for any purpose within two years, was the statement made by Charles F. Stern, president of the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank, at a luncheon of the Electric club. Stern believes that traffic will increase so that the city cannot afford to allow any of the present arteries to be blocked.

In March, 1922, Peter R. Smith and Samuel Holzman sent a consignment of rancid walnuts to Seattle. An unsuspecting southerner with a penchant for walnuts tried several of the nuts. He turned the rest over to the government, which set out to find the dealer responsible for violation of one of its laws. Smith and Holzman pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Bledsoe and were fined $25 each.

Los Angeles will be patrolled by shotgun squads after dark until the present epidemic of holdups is abated, was an unofficial statement from police headquarters today, following reports of six robberies.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, March 11.—The Women's Twentieth Century club has joined with the clubs of the Los Angeles district federation in adopting a resolution that puts them on record as favoring assembly bills 776 and 777, and senate bill 469, which seek re-establishment of the Industrial farm for women. The bills provide $150,000 for buildings, salaries and maintenance of the farm, which seeks to care for delinquent women.

There will be an organ recital at the First Congregational church on Friday night, March 13, under the patronage of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for the benefit of their educational work and the organ fund. A program has been arranged with popular classical numbers played by Mrs. Mabel M. Hamer, who studied with Herbert Sisson of Cleveland, Ohio, and is at present an artist pupil of Dr. Ray Hastings, well-known concert organist.

"Enoch Arden" will be read by Mrs. Elizabeth Glend Miller, the popular teacher of Franklin high school, who has received so much commendation on her coaching of Don Tyler and her Shakespearean presentations.

Those who attended the recent surprise party given for A. Glas- tre of 4816 Townsend avenue included: Mrs. F. Reynolds, O. B. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hefflin and Miss Cleo Hefflin of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mettler and their daughter, Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. L. Roloff, Miss Edith Glas- tre and Alfred Glas- tre Jr., helped to entertain.

Percy Pierson, plumbing, inspector, is convalescing after an illness of three weeks and hopes to return to the office at an early date.

Rev. J. C. Crouch of Chickasaw avenue has been called to Arizona by the critical illness of his brother.

Mrs. Slater and little son, who arrived recently from Toronto, Canada, are now domiciled in the log cabin on El Verano avenue.

Oratorio Entertained By Poppy Field Trio

At the rehearsal of the Oratorio department of Glendale Music club at Harvard High school, last night, the Poppy Field Trio of Los Angeles, entertained. Members of the trio are Rosalie Phillips, Lois Miller, Eunice Ross, Judy, all pupils of John Smallman.

A grain elevator to be erected in Ottawa, Canada, will cost $28,000,000.

TELEGRAPH HEAD LEAVES MILLIONS

Late Executive of Western Union Gives Nieces
Each $100,000

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 11.—The will of the late Robert Clowry, formerly president and general manager Western Union Telegraph Co., was filed for probate here. It bequeathed an estate said to run into many millions.

In addition to a bequest of $100,000 to each of his nieces and nephews, most of whom are not named, Clowry left $2,500 to Miss Ethel Esterbrook.

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Mar. 11.—If rumors were flippers, reporters would have a cinch. Rumors to the right, rumors to the left and rumors to the contrary, but all less than one-half of one per cent news. Tujunga is going to have a hotel—if anyone ever gets time and courage to do more than discuss it. Nearly had one once, a couple of years ago, but the capitalists "took their $75,000 and changed their minds." An auto camp for tourists also agitates the advocates of modern conveniences, at times, but unfortunately the advocates appear a little shy on action and apparently believe George should do it. Everybody is willing to give three cheers.

Rapid transit by train to the big cities in the near future is another rumor which has all the earmarks of being the child of a wishful parent. However, if this rumor will abide in the community long enough it must inevitably become a reality. With efficiency on the Glendale line of the Pacific Electric increased by use of the new tunnel, which is expected to be finished the latter part of this year, passenger transportation in the Verdugo hills is bound to be improved, especially with the demand being made by a rapidly increasing population.

Oil prospects furnish more rumormore and a recent flurry of excitement was caused among the more glib by a new rumor in this field. The excitement, if any, has subsided to normal and the patients are again breathing easy. Careful investigation seems to show that the promoters of certain stock selling plans have suspended advertising, hence the suspension of interest.

For good, reliable rumors the public probably finds the illicit liquor business less disappointing than other sources at regular intervals some incident occurs to substantiate rumors of bootlegging activity in the hills around and about. A few days ago a fire blazed out from the side of a hill across the Tujunga wash. The fire was of unknown origin and came from a cave dug in the hillside, which had been camouflaged with brush and tree branches. The whole outfit was and is of unknown origin, for no one has been seen to claim, or explain the presence of a high-powered still all set up for operation. A few months ago several truck loads of mash and paraphernalia were seized on a plant nearby and the operators sentenced heavily for making liquor. They never learn.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, March 11.—Assessments for construction of the first unit of the local sewer system are $20,513.50 over the contract price of $241,002.38 made by the James Engineering Co. and accepted by the City Trustees, it is announced by A. J. Rose, city engineer.

It must be remembered that such incidental expenses as preliminary engineering surveys, specifications, ordinances and advertising are not a part of the contract price, Mr. Rose states, and inspection costs after such a job is completed also mount into a sizable figure. The following itemized cost statement is submitted:

Contract price	$241,002.38
Engineering	2,409.98
Inspection	8,912.89
Printing and Advertising	1,453.00
Miscellaneous	7,637.72
Total	$261,515.97

Members of the Chamber of Commerce are not crowding one another for positions in the bucking Burbank "air bronco" which is to advertise this city at the Glendale aerial rodeo, March 14 and 15. When President A. E. Durr of the chamber called for volunteers for the honor of riding in the plane, painful silence followed.

Colonel Kelley of the regular army will be in Burbank tonight for the purpose of making the annual inspection of Company 1. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seeling of Hanover, Pa., who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Seeling of 462 Santa Anita avenue, are now guests in Los Angeles with Mrs. Seeling's brother, Charles Seeling. They will return here again before going east.

Mrs. Arthur L. Holgate and Mrs. Evelyn McNaboe of this city recently visited Sierra Madre Villa ranch, near Sierra Madre, where they participated in a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilson.

SUMMER TOUR

BERKELEY, Cal., March 11.—The University of California baseball varsity will make an eastern tour this summer, it was announced today. They are scheduled to meet Fordham university June 8 and the University of Pennsylvania June 11.

COMMENT BY GIL A. COWAN

In current issues the Sacramento Bee editor has been referring to the progress of Los Angeles and praying that the capital city of the state had more spirit like its southern city!

Verily, the north is amply blessed by nature to be the most populous section of California.

They chide Los Angeles for its boasting, they refuse to admit Los Angeles has a million and a quarter population, although school figures prepared in the city of Sacramento, prove it so.

And the north is jealous of the south with the result that they drive tourists and investors away from their own doors.

It is simply a case where "Every knock is a boost."

Los Angeles would do well to advertise all of California and San Francisco should follow. Sacramento should be proud of Los Angeles' success, also, for we could name a score of business men who left Sacramento to aid in building the southern metropolis.

Likewise, it would be good for some of the great merchants of the southern section of the state to investigate the opportunities in the northern and central sections of California. Many wise investments could be made.

The Glendale Evening News was subjected to the scrutiny of several newspaper men at the capitol recently. They could not see how the paper could be made better from editorial and news standpoint.

And when they were told that circulars were being used to advertise some establishments, they said:

"How foolish. Don't your Glendale merchants know that newspaper advertising is best because people READ the paper and they DON'T read handbills?"

The writer wonders, too, how many merchants READ handbills.

Egyptian Puzzle Is Given By Mr. Dewey

Two Months' Report Of Welfare Council

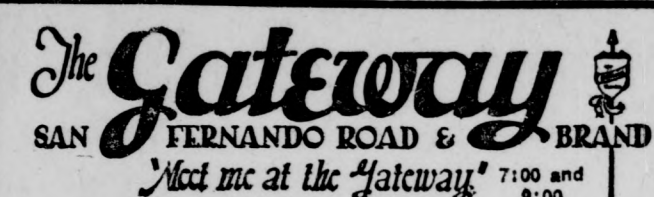

Combining activities of January and February, reports were presented last night at the meeting of executives of Glendale Welfare Council and Bureau, in headquarters at 215 East Broadway. There were present: Mrs. E. D. Yard, president; Mesdames L. T. Rowley, Edith Dockery, L. W. Sinclair and F. C. Ayars.

The report for the bureau for the two months included home visits, eighty; interviews at office and homes, seventy-six; families assisted, sixty-two; new cases investigated and assisted, thirty-eight; employment secured for fifteen; city orders of groceries amounting to $47; six clinic cases, $8.50; light and water bills paid, $21.30. Countless articles of clothing have been given out by the council.

Included in the financial report were fifty-three checks for relief, $218; milk bills paid amounting to $2.36; dry goods and supplies, $16.75; milk bought amounting to $4.34; dry cleaning bills, $5.50. Mrs. Yard is anxious that all needy cases be reported to the headquarters, where aid will be arranged.

Princess Class Plans Milk Gift To Needy

Members of the Princess class of St. Mark's Episcopal church decided at their meeting last night to supply one quart of milk a day for a month to a needy family in Glendale. The milk will be supplied during the month of April as part of the Lenten work for the class. Arrangements were made through the Glendale Welfare council. Miss Lucille El- dridge, president, had charge of the meeting. Plans for a hike to Switzer's camp on Saturday, March 21, were made. Mrs. Philip K. Kemp and Mrs. Frank W. Parr, advisers, were present and fourteen girls attended the meeting. Supper was served.
